Correspondence of the Associated Press.

NEW-ORLEANS, Saturday, March 12.

There is considerable stir and activity in military matters in this department at present.

Gen. BANKS is on the eve of departure for Western Louisiana. His objective point is probably Alexandria. A fleet of Admiral PORTER's gunboats has already started for that place. It is expected that rather formidable works of defence will be encountered by the iron-clads, (one of which is the newly launched Ozark,) between the mouth of Red River and Alexandria.

As you have been previously advised, Gen. LEE's cavalry left this city about a week ago; their destination is supposed to be, to the westward.

Madisonville, a small town on Lake Ponchartrain, opposite New-Orleans, has been evacuated. It was occupied by our forces under Gen. GROVER on the 13th of January, and extensive fortifications thrown up on the land side. These works were left intact, but add nothing to the strength of the place for the rebels, as it is easily approached by water.

The object sought by occupying the place was to open communication with Baton Rouge. Gen. GROVER's whole force has been ordered to concentrate at the latter place.

The Twety-sixth Massachusetts Regiment has reënlisted. It will start for home about the 20th inst., on a thirty days' furlough. GILMORE, the celebrated Boston musician, and his band, will go, it is expected, by the same steamer. Many of our citizens have started a scheme to give Mr. GILMORE a tesilmonial. The subscriptions are liberal already, and there is every reason to believe that the affair will be creditable as well as acceptable.

It is believed that some sort of an understanding has been entered into between Gens. BANKS and STEELE, by which Western Louisiana and Southern Arkansas are to be cleared of rebel troops.

An order has just been issued by Gen. BANKS to hold an election for delegates to a Constitutional Convention on the 28th.

The Convention meets in New-Orleans on the 6th of April. There are to be 150 delegates, chosen on a white basis, as per census of 1860. New-Orleans will have sixty-three members.

THE FREED NEGROES OF LOUISIANA.

Happy Condition of the Negroes—Success of the New Labor Regulations—Labors of the Superintendent of Negro Affairs, &c.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

NEW-ORLEANS, Thursday, March 10, 1864.

Here, in Louisiana, wonders have been wrought. A few months ago, to find a negro who could read was a wonder; to find one who could write was a greater wonder, and to find one who understood arithmetic was a greater wonder still. Fortunately, a good Providence has seen fit to ordain better things, and now here, in this sin-cursed city, nineteen hundred colored children are reading and writing in the day schools which they attend.

One year ago, Col. HANKS was feeding from the Government Commissariat more than twenty thousand negroes. Beside this number, there were quite fifteen thousand who hung around the camps and elsewhere, obtaining their living partly by cooking, washing, fishing and stealing; yet these were, to a large extent, an incubus upon the Government.

Now all the negroes have been placed in a condition of profit to the Government and to themselves. Not only does the labor system furnish employment to those within the limits of this department, but had we ten thousand more they could all be employed without expense, but rather with great benefit to the Government.

The benefits that will return to the Government this year, resulting from the operations of this system of labor, will more than pay all the expense that the refugee negroes have been to it since the occupation of the State by our forces.

Facts furnish the best proof of the success of any system; and, when we compare the condition of fifty thousand negroes in this State last year with their condition now, we need hardly allude to a thousand particulars. We feed to-day at public expense fifty colored orphans, and about one hundred aged men and women.

Rev. T. W. CONWAY, who has been assigned to duty with Col. HANKS, the faithful Superintendent of Negro Affairs, has just visited some of the parishes of the State, with the view of perfecting a means of uniting the separated families of the colored troops, as well as the registering of all the colored persons in the department, and has ascertained, in regard to the disposition of the negroes themselves, that they are now quite happy; and, with the assurance given that their children shall have the blessings of education, they feel very contented and exceedingly grateful. These people are now very jealous of their rights, and they know very well when they are wronged, and that, by reporting any injury done them by their employers to Col. HANKS, they will surely receive redress. They, consequently, feel greatly improved, and are very willing to work.

The danger regarding the entire success of any labor system for the colored people, lies in the miserable designs of many selfish planters, who, when the crops come in, would pocket the money earned by the laborers. In order that justice shall be done to these people, there should be appointed to each department a Superintendent of Freedmen's Affairs, with full powers from the Government to rectify all abuses on the plantations, and to exact strict justice from the employer and the employed. I trust the law in regard to the organization of a bureau in the General Government, which shall manage the whole subject, will pass, and that the Superintendents of Negro affairs in the various departments, may, in conjunction with that, be able to do a service which, in the present unorganized state of affairs, is greatly needed.

Important Order by Gen. Banks.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF,
NEW-ORLEANS, March 11, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 35.—1. An election will be held on Monday, the 28th day of March, at 9 o'clock A. M., in each of the election precincts established by law in this State, for the choice of delegates to a convention to be held for the revision and amendment of the Constitution of Louisiana.

2. The several parishes shall be entitled to elect the number of delegates herein assigned to each upon the basis of white population exhibited by the census of 1860, to be chosen in each parish on one ticket by the qualified voters of the parish, except in the Parish of New-Orleans, in which parish the election shall be held in the several Representative districts established by law, for the number of delegates herein assigned to each district, to be chosen on one ticket, by the qualified voters of the district, as follows:

[Then, after stating the representation in detail, the order proceeds:]

3. Any parish not now within the lines of the army shall be entitled to elect delegates as herein specified, at any time before the dissolution of the convention, should such parish be brought within the lines of the army.

4. Every free white male, twenty-one years of age, who has been a resident of the State twelve months, and six months in the parish in which he offers to vote, who is a citizen of the United States, and who shall have taken the oath prescribed by the President in his proclamation of the 8th December, 1863, shall have the right to vote in the election of delegates.

5. Citizens of the State who have been expelled from their homes by the public enemy on account of their devotion to the Union, and who would be qualified voters in the parishes to which they belong, will be allowed to vote for delegates in the election precincts in which for the time being they may reside.

6. Citizens of the State who have volunteered for the defence of the country in the army or navy, and who are otherwise qualified voters, will be allowed to vote in the election precincts in which they may be found on the day of election.

7. The Commissioners of Election appointed to superintend the polls at the election of State officers, Feb. 22, 1864, are authorized and directed, in the absence of other orders, to fulfill and discharge all the duties of Commissioners of Election in their respective precincts, for this election.

8. The Commissioners of Election, at any election precinct, are authorized to administer the oath of allegiance, as prescribed by the President, to any person otherwise qualified to vote, and to register the name of such voter in New-Orleans where a register is required, or to receive it in other Parishes where no register is required, at any time before the polls are closed on the day of election.

9. The Commissioners in the several parishes will make prompt returns of the votes given to the Sheriff of the parish, as provided by law, or in his absence to the Provost-Marshal, who will immediately return the same to the Secretary of State in the same manner and form as for members of the General Assembly.

10. The Sheriffs of the several Parishes, and in their absence the Provost-Marshals will take especial care that the polls are properly opened, and that suitable Judges of Election and other officers are appointed. It is desirable that all persons properly qualified shall vote, but it is more important that the integrity of the election shall not be vitiated by illegal or fraudulent acts.

11. The Delegates duly elected to the convention shall meet at Liberty Hall, Executive Building, in the City of New-Orleans, at 12 o'clock M. on Wednesday, the 6th day of April, 1864. In case any vacancy occurs by resignation or death after the organization of the convention, a writ of election shall be issued by the convention to fill the vacancy.

By command of Major-Gen. BANKS.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE N. Y. TIMES.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Officers from the front represent everything quiet there this morning. The officers and men of the army are delighted at the prospect of having a general from the West to command. It will have the effect of wiping out all old grievances and contentions.

The excitement about the threatened raid by STUART has subsided. Notwithstanding the statements that the report in the TIMES was a canard, without foundation, it was nevertheless substantially true, and nothing but the prompt action of Gen. PLEASANTON prevented STUART from carrying out his intentions. A detachment of the enemy crossed the Rappahannock near Fredericksburgh, Wednesday night, and the following day, Col. BRYAN, Eighteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry, captured twenty of the party, including two well-known scouts, MCILVAINE and MCREYNOLDS, of YOUNG's brigade, one of the brigades stationed at Fredericksburgh, who captured the Third Division Cavalry mail, last September. Yesterday morning a detachment of the enemy crossed Morton's Ford, and drove in the Seventh Michigan pickets, but were subsequently repulsed and forced to recross the river.

The Star of this evening says:

"From parties who arrived here from the front to-day we learn that a rebel advance was anticipated yesterday, and marching orders were issued to nearly all the command. After everything had been packed however, and all was in readiness for a move, the order was countermanded, and things settled themselves to their usual order. There are rumors afloat at the front that the rebel cavalry is massing at Fredericksburgh, preparatory to a move north. Our cavalry, or a portion of it, is also on the move, but it would not be proper to say whither. Firing was heard all along the line yesterday, but this was supposed by many to be merely artillery practice. This morning, however, firing was heard in the direction of Dumfries, and it sounded as though there was some skirmishing going on."

A GRAVE SUSPICION.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, March 20.

Prisoners from Richmond do not hesitate to assert as their belief that the rebels have already secretly executed a number of officers attached to colored regiments. Several have disappeared mysteriously from the Libby it is said.

THE RELEASE OF THE CALIFORNIA PIRATE.

The facts concerning the release of the pirates in California on taking the oath under the Amnesty Proclamation, have reached here, and has been submitted to the Supreme Court Judges and the War Department. It appears that a plot was laid to capture one or more steamships and take them to the Indian ocean to convert them into privateers. The originator of the plot went to Richmond and secured letters of marque, then returned to San Francisco and was nearly ready to complete the scheme when he was discovered. He was arrested and was to have been hung, when he claimed the right to avail himself of the Amnesty Proclamation, and under that was discharged.

FEMALE BLOCKADE RUNNERS ARRESTED.

Mrs. BURELL, wife of an officer of the navy; Mrs. CARTER, whose husband is in the Confederate States, and another lady, have been confined in the old Capital Prison for attempting to convey letters, medicines, etc., to the rebels. They had nearly got outside the lines when they were taken. All the parties move in the most fashionable circles here.

THE ARMY ALREADY IN THE FIELD.

An officer whose business it is to know, states that the effective army of the United States in the field exceeds by 240,000 the entire force one year ago.

ARMED MERCHANT STEAMSHIPS.

The bills now in preparation by the House Commerce and Post-office Committees, in favor of the establishment of a line of steamships between New-York and Southampton and ports on the Mediterranean, will provide for an armament on the ships sufficient for war purposes, not only for self-protection, but for the capture of rebel privateers. The Navy Department approves the measure.

THE TOBACCO AND PETROLEUM TAX.

Several parties, gentlemen of New-York, interested in the Tariff and Tax bills, were yesterday before the committee who have the matter in charge, and urged the committee to impose a tax on both leaf and manufactured tobacco; also on crude and manufactured petroleum. The question of reducing and equalizing the salaries of the Assessors and Collectors under the Tax Bill has not been acted upon.

OFFICIAL DEFAULTERS.

It appears from the report of Col. BAKER upon HENDERTON's case, just submitted to the Treasury Department, that he convicts him of malfeasance in office, and accepting money for passing warrants out of order, involving large amounts. Capt. FERGUSON, who was connected with the frauds in Alexandria, has already disgorged over $70,000.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, March 20.

WAITING FOR CREWS.

Thirty-two vessels are now ready for sea, but are waiting for crews. The transfer of sailors from the army will, it is supposed, supply the demand.

THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY.

The Judiciary Committee of the House has instructed its Chairman to report with a recommendation that it pass Representative WILSON's joint resolution proposing to the several State Legislatures an amendment to the Constitution abolishing Slavery as incompatible with a Republican Government.

THE "GREAT AMERICAN TRAVELER" SPEAKS.

About twenty members had entered their names as candidates for the floor on Saturdays, which are exclusively set apart for speech-making. Only three, however, addressed the empty seats yesterday. After the adjournment, some one calling himself "The Great American Traveler," posted himself on the steps leading to the Speaker's chair, and delivered an animated harrangue about freedom, to the edification of the few persons present on the floor and in the galleries.

OFFICERS FOR MONTANA TERRITORY.

Ex-Representative KELLOGG, of Illinois, it is reported, is to be Governor of the new Territory of Montana.

There seems to be no doubt that the Senate will pass the House bill providing for its organization. The applicants for the other offices are numerous.

SECESSION NOBILITY.

Letters from Europe report that all kinds of titles of nobility are to be conferred by MAXIMILIAN on the Secessionists, who in large numbers attend him from Paris to Mexico. Dr. GWIN is to be a Duke.

MISHAPS TO DEPARTED NEGROES.

About 420 colored colonists were embarked from the vicinity of Fortress Monroe in April last, under a contract of Messrs. FORBES and TUCKERMAN, of New-York, for the Isle of Avache. These colored people, the Chronicle says, seems to have been the subjects of misfortune from the day of their departure. On their voyage the small pox broke out among them and they suffered beyond description. Owing to the mismanagement of those in charge of them, their sufferings were, if possible, increased after their arrival at the Island of Avache from want of attention and proper accommodation, although the President, in the contract, expressly stipulated that everything should be done to promote their comfort. Their hardships were represented to be so great, and the prospect of their amelioration seemed so slight that Secretary ASHER, under the direction of the President, dispatched Mr. D. C. DONOHUE, of Indiana, to examine into their condition; and Mr. LINCOLN determined upon his report to have them returned to the country without delay. Accordingly the ship Marcia C. Day was sent to the Isle of Avache during the month of February, and yesterday the vessel returned and cast anchor in the Potomac a few miles below this city, near Alexandria, with the surviving colonists, now 380 in number, on board

AFFAIRS IN TENNESSEE.

The Late Election Carried by the Free State Party.

Movement to Erect a New State Out of East Tennessee.

A GLANCE AT THE MILITARY SITUATION.

Rapid Enlistment of Negro Troops at Nashville.

CHANGES AT CHATTANOOGA.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Sunday, March 13, 1864.

Since my last the results of the elections in the various counties of Tennessee have become known, and may be declared a triumphant victory of the Anti-Slavery sentiment of the State. As to those gentlemen who have been placed in power in our immediate midst, they are high-toned, loyal Southerners—every one of them. The meeting which nominated them was made up of the loyal citizens of Nashville, from the Mayor down to the humblest. They were mostly members of the Union Club, and met in the hall devoted to the accommodation of that organization. The truly loyal people of this city are the most bitter toward rebels, and less inclined to tender pardon than our officers on duty here. Therefore you will not think it strange when I inform you that the motto which was adopted by this meeting was "Emancipation, confiscation and extermination." This is the sentiment of Union men, most all of whom are slaveholders, with relatives and friends in the rebel army. Some days previous to the meeting a number of questions were propounded to the candidates for office, the tenor of which may be reduced to the following simple interrogatory: "Are you, heart, soul and body, in favor of the Federal Government; do you sincerely desire the suppression of the rebellion and the punishment of its leaders, and do you ardently wish to see the immediate annihilation of the system of Slavery in the State of Tennessee?" All those candidates who answered in the affirmative, as far as heard from, have received the unbounded support of the loyal portion of our people, and have been elected. Those who hemmed and hawed, in answering the questions, received the votes of those men who dared to perjure themselves, and just enough to announce them as candidates and at the same time proclaim their inglorious defeat.

The majority in this county will reach about nine hundred odd, the vote entire being slightly under a thousand. All who voted subscribed to the oath interposed by the Government, which carried the day. Had the taking of the President's amnesty oath been a sufficient test of loyalty on the part of "prodigals," and others whose sympathies are not with us, the State would have been boldly turned over to secession rulers, right in the face and eyes of a hundred thousand Federal soldiers. It would have been a calamity of frightful proportions, indeed, had not the malicious intentions of the Disunionists and Pro-Slavery mobs of this section of the South been checkmated by the caustic instrument proclaimed by the Governor. Mr. E. R. CAMPBELL, who officiates in the "oath-taking department," announces that so far twelve hundred citizens of this county have subscribed to the President's oath. This is ten hundred more than all the votes cast, and had not the rights of suffrage been conditionally denied them, which party would have triumphed on Saturday last?—not the party in favor of the vigorous prosecution of the war, but those who are opposed to it—the Peace party, of course, would have won the day. You have no idea of the great importance of the result—it is the great political achievement of the day, and is worth as much as one of GRANT's magnificent victories. It is the death-blow to treason and its Copperhead accompaniments, and Copperheadism and its treasonable tendencies, and will inflict serious wounds upon those who have urged a timid, shameful crowd of "prodigals" and lukewarm Unionists (with nigger on the brain) to perjure themselves "to defeat the Abolitionists."

The question of separating East Tennessee from the State proper is being urged by the residents of that section, and the subject is one which must elicit lively discussion. The leading men, as a majority, and the masses of that portion of the State are enthusiastic upon the subject of division, and will endeavor to bring it about in some way. The Union men of this and the western sections will oppose it, as it will throw them entirely out into the cold. The loyal men of Middle and West Tennessee depend on East Tennessee for assistance, and should that portion of the State declare itself independent, the most serious difficulties imaginable will have to be encountered here. Those who are in favor of this separation, are also in favor of adding to their domains small slices of Georgia and North Carolina. The question of separation, and the policy of establishing an independent State, was warmly urged at a convention which met at Greenville, E. T., in the latter part of the Summer of 1861. At this convention, a committee was appointed to memorialize the Legislature on the subject, which body respectfully declined the prayer. Now, in all probability, the people will take advantage of the secession ordinance. The middle and west portions of the State "voted themselves out of the Union," while East Tennessee in thunder tones refused its coöperation. The Chattanooga Gazette, the only daily paper in the State east of Nashville, is is in favor of separation, and urges the people to immediately set themselves at work, and if possible to add Northern Georgia and Western North Carolina, the people of whom, it is understood, are in favor of attaching themselves under this new programme.

The return of the veterans daily adds to the animation and bustle of this once haughty city. For the past four days almost four thousand of these fellows have arrived, all of whom look happier, if anything, than when they passed the other way. The Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry arrived here on Friday night. When this regiment left for home there were between two and three hundred members; they return with nearly twelve hundred men. The Ninth Ohio left here with three hundred, and return with nine hundred men. The Tenth Illinois went home with three hundred men, and returned with nearly six hundred. A glance at the barracks books yesterday informed me that most of the returning regiments pass through with an increase of at least two hundred men. The veteran arrangement has been a great success indeed.

The raising of colored troops is progressing finely in this department, and reflects great credit upon all concerned. Already Tennessee has raised and equipped twelve regiments, and more are being formed, as will be seen by the following:

HEADQUARTERS DEPT. OF THE CUMBERLAND,
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 29, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 39.—The raising of two regiments of infantry of African descent, will be commenced at this place without delay, under the direction of Col. T. J. MORGAN, commanding Fourteenth U. S. Colored Troops.

Col. MORGAN will receive all recruits enlisted by Mr. J. A. SPOONER, agent for recruiting colored troops, as well as those recruited at such other stations as he may establish, and organize them into companies under command of the officers of his regiment, until officers are appointed.

One of these regiments will be composed of such men only as can pass the physical examination required of all men enlisting in the military service of the United States. The other will be composed of the classes of colored men capable of performing the ordinary fatigue duties of a military depot; and as soon as companies are organized, they will be subject to such details for fatigue duty as the Commanding-General of the department may direct.

WM. W. WRIGHT, Chief Engineer U. S. Mil. R. R. Division of the Mississippi, has been appointed Colonel of the Second Regiment named above.

The Major-General commanding the department will nominate for appointment the additional field and staff officers, selecting such as he may deem best fitted for the service. Their names will be reported to the Bureau of Colored Troops at Washington, D. C., through Capt. R. S. MUSSEY, Nineteenth U. S. Infantry, Acting Com. Org. U. S. C. T., when the appointments will be forwarded and the regiments receive their designations.

The Quartermaster's, Commissary and Ordnance Departments will fill Col. MORGAN's requisitions for the necessary stores.

By command of Maj.-Gen. THOMAS.
(Signed) WM. S. WHIPPLE, A. A. Gen.

Capt. SIDELL, (of New-York,) of the Fifteenth Regulars, has been appointed Colonel of a new regiment from the State.

Maj. MCMICHAEL, (of Philadelphia,) A. A. G. on THOMAS' staff, has been appointed Colonel of a new Pennsylvania regiment.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Wednesday, March 16, 1864.

I have never belonged to the crowd comprising the "On to Richmond" phalanx, but always feel a lively interest and enthusiasm upon the occasions of such expeditions as STONEMAN's and KILPATRICK's. I take a great amount of stock in the Grant concern: and, therefore, do not believe all that has been published as his views regarding the Federal occupation of the rebel capital. First—if that is Gen. GRANT's opinion, those Washington newspaper gentlemen must have guessed at it, and curiously guessed right, as there can be no instance found where Gen. GRANT has made public any of his intentions. Again, I do not believe Gen. GRANT means to march an army to Richmond. He may place all the armies in motion at the same time—I think he will. All the troops in Texas are being hurried to New-Orleans. This is for something. One can easily guess what the movement in that direction is for. Lastly, I incline to the opinion that Richmond will fall during the coming Summer, whether the Army of the Potomac moves or not. The moral and political effect of the downfall of Richmond, and Charleston as well, would electrify the nation. Therefore, I am in favor of capturing both of these places, and of course have my plan for doing it.

Since my last letter there has been a change in the military situation in East Tennessee. Gen. SCHOFIELD, on Wednesday last, moved out to Mossy Creek, and established his headquarters there, with Gen. COX as Chief of Staff in the field, leaving Gen. POTTER to conduct affairs at Knoxville, with title of Post Chief of Staff. Knoxville is said to be steadily improving in health and cleanliness. The commissariat is much better supplied, and all connected with the Army of the Ohio draw full rations of everything. The Lamar House, one of the hotels which has been seized for hospital purposes, and well known to all travelers as one of the best and most convenient hotels in the South, will be released the coming week, and will resume its old business. Two trains run each way daily from Knoxville, the one going east running as far as Strawberry Plains. The bridge which was to have been finished this week at Loudon was almost totally destroyed during the late rise in the river, which came up twenty-one feet in twenty-four hours. Two months' work by three thousand men was all knocked to pieces in the space of ten hours. Work has been resumed upon it, however, and the Hone Truss style of bridge will be put up. It will not admit of the running of trains much before the 1st of June.

The elections passed off quietly in East Tennessee—the candidates favoring emancipation and the separation of East Tennessee receiving a majority of the votes cast. The rebel army's pickets are at Greenville, nearly sixty miles from Knoxville. It is believed that the two divisions of GRANGER's Corps will soon be sent back to their old command—the Army of the Cumberland. WOOD's Division is at present at Newmarket, in the advance, except one brigade, which is stretched along from Denvir to Knoxville. SHERMAN's Division is still at Lowdon. Provost-Marshal-General CARTER has arrived, and is again fulfilling the duties of his office.

Chattanooga is undergoing a great change. There are about three thousand Northern mechanics and tradesmen there, including the bridge builders and ship carpenters. Immense Government storehouses are being erected, one of which is to be four hundred feet long. The railroads are all in good running order, and the track is being laid on the Georgia road, and trains will be running to Ringgold the latter part of next week. At present there are six boats running on the Tennessee, between Chattanooga and London, two of which often make a through trip to Knoxville. Most all of the hospitals are being vacated, and very little sickness prevails in the army just at the present time. Two more boats will be ready for launching next week, and the work on the bridge is progressing finely. A negro regiment will do provost duty here next week.

The news from Huntsville, where the Fifteenth Corps, under command of Gen LOGAN, is encamped is interesting, as far as politics are concerned. A few nights ago there was quite an enthusiastic gathering of Union men took place, the Hon. JERE. CLEMENS being the President.

Occasionally a squad of guerrillas turn up in some of the central counties, but as a general thing these classes are getting scarce, from the fact, probably, that they have been pretty roughly handled of late. A few days ago Col. STOKES had a lively fight near Carthage with a gang, losing about thirty men in killed and wounded. He killed, captured and wounded nearly the whole band, which numbered over a hundred. Ten guerrillas were also captured in Lincoln County, and several fights have occurred in Sequatchie valley, about twenty miles from Chattanooga.

The following named soldiers from the Middle States died in the hospitals here, and at the front, during the past week, ending the 12th:

Cyrus Lodge, Co. A, 143d New-York.
D. H. Stillwell, Co. I, 134th New-York.
Thos. J. Shaw, Co. E, 143d New-York.
F. E. Hicks, Co. A, 149th New-York.
D. D. Bloomfield, Co. G, 143d New-York.
Martin Kum, Co. I, 33d New-Jersey.

DIVIDING THE STATE OF TENNESSEE.

From the Chattanooga Gazette, March 13.

The Nashville Times publishes the call for the Nashville-Greeneville Convention and asks:

What is up?

Does East Tennessee intend to separate from rebellious Middle and West Tennessee, and organize a separate State a la West Virginia? We would not be surprised if this should happen.

We are not authorized to announce the intentions of the gentlemen who may attend the meeting on the 16th, nor can we say what their action may be, but we can and will say, that there is a deep seated determination on the part of the loyal people of East Tennessee to sever the political ties which have long bound them to "rebellious" Middle and West Tennessee.

The people of this section, long before the war, had just cause of complaint against the people of Middle and West Tennessee in the aggregate. Every occasion was embraced to heap on our heads contumely and reproach. We have been taunted for our poverty, and flouted for our alleged ignorance. We have been sneeringly told that we were pecuniarily a burden to our fellow-citizens on the other side of the mountains, and that we were, socially, a disgrace to the State. For many years, we were never permitted to have a Chief Magistrate chosen from our section, and would not until this good hour, had not the necessities of the Democratic party compelled them to make a candidate out of the only man in the State that they could elect—ANDREW JOHNSON. This was before the war.

After the surrender of Fort Sumter, and the rush of armed traitors to capture the Federal capital, the leaders of Middle and West Tennessee, aided by the miscreants in our own midst, inaugurated a system of vindictive persecutions against East Tennessee almost incredible. A universal howl for the blood of East Tennesseeans was raised in every town and county in Middle and West Tennessee. The numbers imprisoned like felons, whipped like slaves, and hung like murderers, attest the fearful success of those monsters in human shape. A still more numerous class only escaped these miseries by precipitate flight to the mountains. After all these things, is it to be wondered at that the people of East Tennessee should desire to cut aloof from those who have never been their friends.

A PORTENTOUS DISPATCH.

From the Chattanooga Gazette, March 13.

If the late G. P. R. JAMES had enjoyed the inestimable privilege of being a news reporter for the Associated Press, how he would have gloated over the following dispatch, the only one, by the way, received from the front, yesterday:

"Four of the enemy's cavalry passed across our front to Catoosa Springs. They returned after staying a short time."

This would have been sufficient material for two large-sized novels in the hands of the late Mr. JAMES, for he never had more than two horsemen, and often manufactured an entire book out of "one solitary horseman."

A FEMALE DOCTOR IN THE WESTERN ARMY.

Miss MARY C. WALKER, M. D., who arrived here last week, with orders to report to Dr. PERRIN, for duty, has been ordered to report to Col. DAN. MCCOOK, commanding a brigade in JEFF. C. DAVIS' division. She left yesterday for Gordon's Mills, where the brigade is now stationed. The young lady is very pretty, and is said to thoroughly understand her profession. We imagine that the bitter pills which the sick of Col. MCCOOK's brigade take hereafter, will be deprived of a great proportion of their nausea by the fair hands which prescribes them.

DEATH OF COL. MIHALOTZY.

Col. GEZA MIHALOTZY was born in the City of Pesth, in Hungary. He received a military education, and took part in the Hungarian revolution of 1848–9; came to this country in 1850. He settled in Chicago, and commenced the study of medicine under Dr. VALENTA. At the outbreak of the rebellion he raised a company for the three months' service, in Chicago, and was elected Captain. His company was the first that left Chicago. At the expiration of his first term of service, he actively engaged in organizing the Twenty-fourth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and was elected Lieutenant-Colonel of it in November, 1861. On the resignation of Col. HECKER, received a commission as Colonel of the Twenty-fourth. He was with the regiment under Gen. TURCHIN, at the capture of Bowling Green. He was also in the battles of Rankin's Ferry, Jefferson Pike, Stone River, Hoover's Gap, Dug Gap, and was wounded at Chickamauga.

He died on Friday afternoon last, from the effects of a wound he received in the night skirmish at Buzzard's Roost, during the recent reconnoissance. As a regimental commander Col. MIHALOTZY stood very high in the estimation of his military superiors, and his many social virtues made him beloved by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

GEN. SIGEL'S DEPARTMENT.

Capture of West Virginia Legislators by Guerrillas—Some of the Miscreants Taken—Gen. Averill's Health.

SIR JOHN'S RUN, Sunday, March 20.

Last evening a detachment of rebels, reported to be GILMORE's men, made a raid into Bath, a village of Morgan County, West Virginia, two and a half miles from here, and succeeded in capturing Mr. BECHTAL, a West Virginia State Senator, and Mr. WHEAT, a member of the West Virginia House of Delegates.

Soon after it was known that the rebels had dashed into Bath, Gen. SIGEL ordered a force of cavalry in pursuit, with orders to attack them wherever they found them. The latest information here is, that the pursuing force overtook them, and succeeded in taking some of them prisoners.

Gen. SIGEL seems determined to do all he can to prevent such raids in future.

Gen. AVERILL, who was lying dangerously ill at Martinsburgh last night, is recovering. This will be gratifying news to his friends.

Gen. SIGEL is still actively engaged in the reorganization of the troops of this department.

Maj.-Gen. BUTTERFIELD passed Grafton in the East bound train to-day.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST.

Veterans on Furlough—Movements of Lieut.-Gen. Grant and Gen. Sherman—Cotton Sales.

SAN FRANCISCO, Friday, March 18.

The weather continues unsettled. A thunder shower at mid-day deluged the streets with water, ending with hail in sufficient quantities to whiten the ground, permitting considerable indulgence in the sport of snow-balling, an unprecedented event for this city. The prospect is that the ground will become thoroughly saturated before the weather settles, and, consequently, the former prices for breadstuffs are no longer anticipated. Domestic butter may be looked for again in the markets, lessening the demand for the imported article.

Arrived, ship Richard Robinson, from New-York.

A letter, dated Manzanilla, Feb. 15, says that the United States Consul, BLAKE, who recently killed an American sailor who had deserted from the United States steamer Saginaw, was tried at Colorna on the 6th, before a Mexican court, and convicted of murder, and sentenced to be shot. Before the day for the execution arrived, however, BLAKE escaped from prison.

SAN FRANCISCO, Saturday, March 19.

The primary elections for the Convention to choose delegates to the Union State Convention on the 24th have been held this week in most of the counties. The only question at issue is, shall the State Convention send delegates to the Baltimore Convention who are friends or opponents within the Union organization of Senator CONNESS.

Both the Conness and Anti-Conness factions profess to favor the nomination of President LINCOLN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sunday, March 20.

Ships Carrier Dove, Lookout and Success, from New-York, arrived to-day.

Fifty cents per ton in bankable funds, to be paid at the time and place of sale, and the balance in like funds on receiving the order for the coal, which must be called for within ten days thereafter, and the coal taken away within thirty days from the day of sale, unless navigation is obstructed. Buyers who wish, however, can have an additional thirty days for taking the delivery of their purchases, by making a further deposit of fifty cents per ton within the ten days above specified. Interest at 7 per cent. per annum will in such case be charged on the balance, from the time stipulated for payment until paid, and twenty-five cents per ton to cover the expense of stocking the coal—both to be paid on delivery of order.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The steamers Havana and George Washington arrived from New-Orleans on Saturday, bringing news to the 12th inst. There was considerable activity in military circles. Gen. BANKS was on the eve of departure for Western Louisiana, probably Alexandria. A fleet of Admiral PORTER'S gunboats has already started for that place. It was expected that rather formidable works of defence would be encountered by the iron-clads, between the mouth of Red River and Alexandria. Gen. LEE'S cavalry had also left New-Orleans, their destination supposed to be to the westward. An order had been issued by Gen. BANKS to hold an election for delegates to a Constitutional Convention on the 18th. The Convention meets in New-Orleans on the 6th of April. There are to be 150 delegates, chosen on a white basis, as per census of 1860. New-Orleans will have sixty-three members.

Considerable excitement was occasioned in Washington on Saturday, by the prevalence of rumors that the rebel army had crossed the Rapidan and was making an offensive movement. Nothing more serious occurred, however, than the crossing and repulse of a small party of rebels at Newton's Ford. The crossing at Fredericksburg was by a small force, who were driven back with a loss of twenty men captured. STUART is said to be massing his cavalry at Charlottesville and Fredericksburg, evidently with the intention of making some kind of a movement.

News from Chattanooga states that the rebels are in large force in front of Gen. THOMAS' army. Gen. HINDMAN has resigned the command of his rebel corps, and Gen. HOOD takes command in his place. Gen. BRECKINRIDGE takes command of the Department of Southwestern Virginia. A dispatch from Fort Smith, Arkansas, announces that Gen. PRICE has again assumed command of the rebel army in Arkansas, and that he promises to lead them on to victory, and exhorts them to drive back the invader, and recover their lost territory.

The late rise in the Cumberland River has been used with the utmost activity in laying down immense supplies of Government stores at Nashville. Eighty-three steamers, carrying forty thousand tons of public stores, have reached or are en route to that city to discharge their cargoes. By the termination of high-water season the enormous amount of two hundred thousand tons will have been discharged at the Nashville wharves.

Gen. SIGEL, who has just assumed command of the Department of West Virginia, had a narrow escape from capture by the rebels a few days since. While at Martinsburgh he rode outside of his picket lines for some reason, and just at that moment a force of two hundred rebels rode between the General and his lines. Had they known of his presence, they could have captured him with ease.

On Saturday night a party of guerrillas, supposed to be a portion of GILLMORE'S band, made a dash into the village of Bath, Morgan County, West Virginia, and made prisoners of Mr. BECHTAL, a State Senator, and Mr. WHEAT, a member of the House of Delegates. Gen. SIGEL at once ordered a pursuit, and some of the miscreants are reported to have been taken.

The election in Arkansas on the 15th resulted very gratifyingly to the Unionists of that State. Fifteen thousand votes were registered, and over ten thousand cast. A Free State Constitution was adopted, and the whole Free State ticket elected.

Lieut.-Gen. GRANT and his staff passed through Cincinnati last evening, from Louisville, on his way to Washington. Major-Gen. W. T. SHERMAN also arrived at Cincinnati last evening from his New-Orleans trip.

LEGISLATURE.

In the Legislature, on Saturday, there was not much business done. In the Senate, the General Appropriation Bill was reported. A bill was passed to extend the provisions of the bill legalizing indebtedness created for bounty purposes. The Senate, in Executive Session, confirmed the nomination of Dr. SWINBURNE, of Albany, as Health Officer of the City of New-York. In the Assembly, a bill was reported to prevent the publication of lotteries in this State. The Richmond County Bounty Bill was reported adversely, and the bill to incorporate the New-York Dime Savings Bank favorably. The Eleventh-avenue and High Bridge Railroad Bill, reported adversely on Friday, was reconsidered and recommitted. The bill to regulate the tariff of freight on the Hudson River Railroad was ordered to a third reading.

GENERAL NEWS.

The anniversary meeting for the American Sunday School Union was held last evening in the Brick Presbyterian Church, Fifth-avenue, corner of Thirty-seventh-street. The secretary stated that the receipts of the Union for the past year were $51,000; that over 800 new schools had been organized, and 55,000 children gathered into them. Mr. STEPHEN PAXSON, Rev. A. A. WILLETS, of Brooklyn, and others, addressed the audience, after which a large collection was taken up, and the meeting dismissed with the benediction.

Five influential Parsee merchants in London have recently contributed £500, (equal to nearly $4,000,) to be appropriated to the support of the negroes emancipated under the proclamation of the President of the United States. One-third of this sum has been received by Gov. ANDREW through Mr. RUSSELL STURGIS.

The Stock market was rather less firm on Saturday than the day before, though prices yielded slowly. Gold 161⅝ at the close of the day. Money easy.

The Hartford (Conn.) journals say that the quota of that State, under all calls, including the last for two hundred thousand men, has been filled, and that there is a surplus which will apply on any future call.

Flour was more active on Saturday, at uniform prices. All kinds of grain were quiet, at generally unchanged rates. Cotton, groceries and tallow remained as last noticed. Provisions were in moderate request, including pork, at drooping prices. Whisky was less active. Freights were rather quiet, with 458 vessels of all classes in port. The changes in other branches of trade were unimportant.

The Restoration of Arkansas.

Arkansas has given a larger vote for the Union than even Louisiana, and is also ahead of her in the adoption of a Free State Constitution. Though the latest reduced "Confederate" State, it is yet the first of any to reconstitute itself on a Free State basis. It has been admirably prompt both in deciding and executing. Undoubtedly the chief cause of this superior promptitude over Louisiana and Tennessee is the fact that the slave population of the State has been at no time more than one third as large. On account of the comparative newness of the country, the large slaveholders were comparatively very few, and the great majority of the people had no slaves at all. It was only by the most villainous chicanery that the Secession Convention was elected which professed to take Arkansas out of the Union. Slavery did not supply the same stimulus in that State that it did in some of the others. It is not at all strange that when brought back by force, she so much more readily accepts the result, and adapts her social system to the new order of things.

There has been some apprehension that a disagreement which has existed to some extent between the Military Commander, Gen. STEELE, and some of the leading citizens, respecting the best plan of restoration, would delay, if not absolutely frustrate, the movement. But the largeness of the vote given, and the decisiveness of the majority, evince that these dissensions were brought happily to an end; and the path now seems to be perfectly clear to the early and complete fulfillment of the will of the people just expressed. The Legislature will meet next month to elect Senators to Congress; the election has already taken place for Representatives to the House. The whole machinery of the State Government will soon be in operation throughout all parts of the State which have been reclaimed from rebel control, now amounting to nearly four-fifths. The rebel authorities are not blind to the fact that Arkansas is about to pass forever from their grasp, and have again put Gen. PRICE in the supreme command of the department, in order to make one last desperate effort for its recovery. We have no belief, however, that the demonstration will be pushed to any great length. It is too palpably impracticable for even rebel insanity to entertain seriously for any long period. PRICE, who has so often failed before in his operations upon that region, will find himself, after such a development and organization of Union feeling, baffled worse than ever.

The vote of Louisiana upon a Free State Constitution takes place next month, as does also that of Maryland. Tennessee will also pass upon the same question before the end of May. We may confidently reckon that before the Spring closes four Slave States will have become transformed by organic law into Free States, leaving but nine still under the thrall of the institution. Kentucky alone of the loyal States will enjoy the unenviable distinction of adhering to a relic of barbarism which is uniformly spurned by every regenerated rebel State, as incompatible with true devotion to the Union. As our arms advance, and the remaining rebel States successively yield to the old flag, beyond all doubt a Free State Government will be adopted in each. This result will be brought about with less difficulty in some than in others, but it is sure to come, sooner or later, to all alike. It will come not simply by the military effect of the President's Proclamation. It will obtain a more important sanction yet from the direct political action of the people. Arkansas was included in the Emancipation Proclamation; and, so far as that momentous document could avail, the freedom of the slave was already secured. Yet that did not hinder the people of Arkansas from ratifying, with the President's own approval, this extinction of Slavery in the State. Just such a popular ratification will be given in every other reclaimed State—destroying the last chance for cavilling against the legal effect of the proclamation, which the enemies of the President have denounced with such bitterness.

The President's method of reconstruction may now be considered to be "in the full tide of successful experiment." It is progressing with every promise of complete success. Every new application of it only furnishes new evidence of its wisdom. It will soon, we believe, be universally recognized to be the only true way—the way at once perfectly safe and perfectly effective.

WHAT SHOULD BE EXTERMINATED.—Our Nashville correspondent writes us that the motto and the sentiment of the Tennessee Unionists at the late election in that State was "Emancipation, Confiscation and Extermination." This, of course, does not imply that these Unionists are in favor of exterminating the population of the Southern States. We may expand the motto thus: Emancipation of slaves—Confiscation of rebel property, and Extermination of the rebellion, root and branch. In every Southern and in every Confederate State, there are large numbers of loyal people, as the present condition of things in the lately Confederate State of Tennessee itself bears witness. A telegraphic dispatch from the Capital of Arkansas, announces that at the election held last week in that State fifteen thousand loyal votes were registered, and ten thousand votes polled. We have no doubt that the same condition of things would be revealed in Alabama, Georgia, and North Carolina to-day, if these States were freed from rebel rule, and the people allowed to express their unbiased opinions. Let the rebellion be utterly exterminated, but after that is done, we shall find in the population of the South excellent elements at hand for reconstruction.

More Trouble for the Country—Another First-Class Crisis.

We regret to learn from numerous sources that we are on the point of witnessing intermarriage on a grand scale between the whites and blacks of this Republic. It has, as most of our readers are aware, been long held by logicians of the Democratic school, that once you admit the right of a negro to the possession of his own person, and the receipt of his own wages, you are bound either to marry his sister, or give your daughter in marriage to his son. The formula into which this argument has always been thrown was this: If all blacks are fit to be free every white man is bound to marry a black: "Niggers" are blacks: Therefore every white man is bound to marry a "nigger."

We have given much study to this syllogism, but after some years of patient investigation, we have been unable to thoroughly comprehend it. We have been relieved from the necessity of puzzling our brains over it any longer, however, by the appearance of a pamphlet written by a Bowery Spiritual Medium, followed by an article in the Tribune, and another in the Independent, showing, not that it is the duty of those who oppose negro Slavery to marry negroes, but that it is a wise thing to do—that we thereby promote our own happiness and benefit our race. This, of course, relieved us of the necessity of devoting any further consideration to our obligations in the matter; so we begun to turn our attention to the question of expediency. We were fast reaching the conclusion that, right or wrong, the notions of the Caucasian race, and particularly of the Anglo-Saxon branch of it, on the subject of personal beauty during the last 2,000 years were so set, that it was not at all likely they would undergo any material change during the approaching Presidential campaign.

We find, however, from an article in the World, that we were mistaken, and that there is strong reason to believe that all unmarried Republicans of both sexes will marry negroes and negresses immediately after the meeting of the convention next Summer. Some young persons have determined on this course—which at first sight certainly seems extreme—out of what a Westerner would call "pure cussedness;" others are impelled to it out of spite to "Conservatives;" others out of a desire to improve the white race, and others from a desire to oblige Mr. GREELEY, of the New-York Tribune. But all are determined upon a matrimonial alliance with as deep blacks as they can find, without any regard to their social position or antecedents. Those who know anything of the difficulty that has always existed here as well as elsewhere in getting young people to marry particular whites, for the mere purpose of obliging their friends or serving their country, may well be astonished at this extraordinary revolution both in taste and sentiment. Its consequences are viewed with a good deal of apprehension in various quarters, and very reasonably.

The "Society for the Diffusion of Political Information" is, it is needless to say, a good deal excited about it, and after it was reported that the Tribune's last article had confirmed the young people in their intentions, a meeting was called at midnight on Saturday at DELMONICO'S, and Bishop HOPKINS, Mr. JAMES BROOKS and the Count JOANNES were telegraphed for. A corrupt waiter, however, got wind of the affair, and, for a small bribe, gave notice to the reporter of the Evening Post of what was going on, and that functionary obtained admission accordingly, by what we cannot help calling the unworthy trick of presenting himself as the author of a small work on "Negro Calves," with an appendix on "Heels." We ask pardon of our evening cotemporary for anticipating his report by mentioning that, after much deliberation, it was resolved that something had to be done, and that quickly, to prevent the degeneration of the white race on this continent by the unnatural alliance with blacks contemplated by the Republican party; that there was but one way of preventing this horrible consummation, and that was by the circulation of tracts, and of plaster casts, calculated to enlighten the public as to the probable effects of an intermixture of races, and to recall to their minds the standard of beauty, both male and female, which existed at the time of the Revolution. We believe we are not committing an indiscretion in mentioning that Professor MORSE has been charged with the task of writing Tract No. 1, which is intended to show to young men and women the logical absurdity of marrying a negro. Bishop HOPKINS is to furnish No. 2, which is to be devoted to proving that Ham was as bad a husband and father as he was a son. While an Italian gentleman, whose name we are not permitted to mention, has been engaged to furnish the association with 50,000 busts of the Medicean Venus and Apollo Belvidere, at one cent a piece, for distribution.

These are vigorous measures, well worthy both of their originators and of the crisis they are intended to meet; but we confess we cannot help doubting their success. Mr. GREELEY'S articles have sunk too deep in the public mind, and the exigencies of the campaign are too pressing to allow us to hope that many of the intended marriages will be postponed or broken off.

A PUBLIC WANT.—Why do not the Third and Fourth avenue Railroads, which terminate in front of the Astor House, put up a waiting-room for passengers on the open space which they occupy? A roof, if nothing more, would be a great public convenience, especially in rainy weather. The Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, and Seventh avenue Roads also terminate within half-a-block of the same spot, and all might join in erecting a building which would afford shelter and comfort to the patrons of them all. It is contrary to usage in this country, we are aware, to pay any attention to the wants of passengers, but these companies might, by a joint effort, strain a point for once, without doing themselves any material injury.

STEAMERS BETWEEN FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES.—Foreign nations are very naturally taking advantage of the entire disappearance of American steamers on the Atlantic, to take possession of the great commercial route between Europe and America. A company has been formed in France called the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique, which announces the speedy completion of two splendid steamers of the new line which they are about to establish between this port and Havre. The first of these, named the Washington, having made a most satisfactory trial trip, may be expected to arrive here in the month of May, to be followed in June by the second vessel, appropriately named the Lafayette. Their regular days of departure will be announced hereafter. These vessels were both built on the Clyde, and are of the largest and best class of sea-going steamers. The company announce that others of a similar character will be put upon the line as soon as possible. This was a favorite route for persons going directly to the Continent, while it was held by those capital vessels the Arago and Fulton, and it can scarcely fail to regain its former popularity. The office of the new company is at No. 7 Broadway, which will be remembered as the headquarters of the old American Havre line.

WOULD-BE PROPHETS.—A Western exchange contains the following paragraph:

> "It comes from reliable sources that during one of the consultations at the War Department, while the programme of future operations in Virginia was under discussion, Gen. GRANT expressed his opinion in favor of the adoption of the Peninsular route to Richmond. Some of the confrères—who they were the public can infer—objected to it upon the ground that it had already been tried at the expense of defeat to the Union arms. To this Gen. GRANT replied: 'Yes, but what other practicable route to Richmond has been tried without defeat, and what other route carried the Army of the Potomac as near to Richmond as that did?'"

It is not one of Gen. GRANT'S habits of mind to ventilate his military plans and purposes in advance; and it has thus far been one of his peculiarities to make his operations surprises both to friends and foes. We are just as much and just as little in the counsels of Gen. GRANT as those who amuse themselves by drafting programmes of campaigns for him; we neither venture to say what he will do nor to instruct him as to what he ought to do; and all the revelations of his purposes, whether coming from "reliable" or other sources, may be set down as unmitigated bosh.

Amusements.

The announcements at the various places of amusement to-night are as follows: At Mr. WALLACK'S Theatre, the "Belle's Stratagem," for the benefit of Miss FANNY MORANT; at Mrs. WOOD'S, (the Olympic,) BUCKSTONE'S comedy called "Leap Year," cast to the entire strength of the company; at the Winter Garden, the "Ticket-of-Leave-Man"—(this popular drama was to have been withdrawn during the present week—the last of Mr. and Mrs. FLORENCE'S engagement—but the demands for its repetition were so numerous that it will retain its place on the bills to the end;) at Niblo's Garden, Miss RICHINGS, in the drama, with songs, called the "Enchantress;" at BARNUM'S Museum, the new spectacular drama of "Aphrosa," with its fine scenery and beautiful fountain effect.

Mr. ROBERT GOLDBECK will commence a series of classes for instruction in the theory of music at STEINWAY'S Rooms, Nos. 71 and 73 East Fourteenth-street, on Wednesday. There will be three classes, graduated to every possible capacity in the pupil. The subjects embraced are: 1. Musical notation, the interval scales and keys, and the construction and analysis of chords. 2. The relationship of chords and modulation; the subject of melody with the constituent branches of rhythm and phrasing. 3. Writing in two, three and four parts, both strict and free style, including the figuration and imitation of the various parts. Mr. GOLDBECK'S reputation as a composer is a sufficient guarantee of his ability to make these classes both instructive and entertaining. The price of subscription is remarkably low, and will, we trust, induce the ambitious to embrace this opportunity of carrying their studies to a creditable point of theoretical excellence.

Signor BRIGNOLI made a very successful rentrée in Boston last week. The papers speak in terms of the highest praise of his performance in "Martha." In "the opening air of the third act," says one paper, "he excited a genuine furore;" "we failed to discover," says another, "any symptoms of that lost voice which has been so blatantly heralded by some presses in New-York that were inimical to him." Signor BRIGNOLI will be received with enthusiasm on his return to the metropolis. There is a clique opposed to his success, but the average public is on his side, and will rejoice at his perfect recovery.

Mme. METHUA SCHELLER, a German actress of acknowledged merit in her own language, and who has recently obtained a success in English, will commence an engagement at the Winter Garden on Monday next, the 28th. The play is a new one called "Lorlie's Wedding," by Mr. A. DALY.

Mr. ROBERT HELLER, who combines in himself the opposite qualities of a professor of magic and an artist on the piano-forte, will shortly commence a series of entertainments at the old Theatre Français, opposite Niblo's. We have not seen Mr. HELLER in his "magic temple," but we have heard him play, and can vouch for his astonishing powers as a pianist. If versatility were not a profitable trait of talent, we should lament that Mr. HELLER had ever left music for magic. By combining both, let us hope that he will satisfy every one and himself.

Mr. PATTISON'S concert on Monday last, at the Academy of Music, attracted a good audience to that over-large place for such an entertainment. The principal piano-forte pieces were the same as at Mr. PATTISON'S first concert, at Irving Hall, and received the best of treatment, as on that occasion. Miss HARRIS created a furore in a couple of pieces, and Signor LOTTI rendered "Spirito Gentil" with exquisite taste.

The Annual Ball of the Melo-Choreans takes place at Irving Hall on (Easter) Monday next. The event promises to be one of the most interesting of the season, and will not be inferior to the famous Artists' Ball of Paris, so far as the attendance of musical and dramatic celebrities is concerned.

Mlle. VESTVALI commences an engagement at the Brooklyn Academy of Music to-night in "Gamea."

The entertainments at the Stereoscopticon, at Hope Chapel, continue to attract delighted audiences. A matinée will be given every day this week.

Mr. J. R. THOMAS, the well-known song composer, assisted by first-rate talent, will give his annual concert at Irving Hall on Saturday next.

VAN AMBURGH & CO'S. MENAGERIE.—Our readers should not forget that this magnificent zoological collection is now on the last week but three of its stay in this City. To all who have a taste for the study of natural history, abundant material is furnished for its successful prosecution. A visit to this extensive and well conducted establishment cannot fail to afford substantial gratification to all, as the collection is one of the finest ever brought together upon either side of the Atlantic, and far superior to anything of the kind we have ever had in this City. The cleanliness of the cages and the elegance of all the appointments render the exhibition peculiarly gratifying to a refined taste. The total absence of all features of an objectionable character has its influence with a very large class of our citizens.

Anniversary Meeting in New-York for the American Sunday-School Union.

Last evening the anniversary meeting in New-York for the American Sunday-School Union, was held in the Presbyterian Brick Church, Rev. Dr. SPRING, corner of Fifth-avenue and Thirty-seventh-street. The church was well filled with an excellent and intelligent congregation. Rev. Dr. FERRIS, President of the New-York Sunday-School Union, presided. Rev. JOHN H. BURTIS, one of the Secretaries of the American Sunday-School Union, stated that the contributions from the Sunday Schools of the New-York Sunday-School Union were $6,387 96; contributions paid into the New-York Treasury from other schools in and near the City, $8,830; from other sources, $12,290; making in all $27,630 34—an increase of several thousand dollars. The receipts of the American Sunday School Union for the past year were $51,000. Over 800 new schools have been organized, and 55,000 children gathered into them. The Secretary stated that the Society had greatly prospered during the past year, additional missionaries had been appointed in many of the States, and that these schools and missionaries were permanent. He also said the Union basis is the only basis on which any religious organization can be effected in hundreds of neighborhoods in our land; that this organization must be the Sunday School, for the church cannot be formed to suit the nature of the case; that the Sunday School Missionary service comprehends family visitation, Bible and religious book distribution and forming of the Sunday Schools. He also appealed for larger contributions, and stated that $2,500 had already been promised. Mr. STEPHEN PAXON, of Illinois, for fifteen years Missionary of the Society, addressed the audience, giving his own experience as an introduction. All his education was obtained in a Sunday School after he was thirty years of age. During his service he had organized nearly eleven hundred new schools, and gathered into them nearly 57,000 children. He gave a very interesting history of some of these schools, showing how they had finally developed into churches. His address was a most convincing and instructive one, and was listened to with great attention. Rev. A. A. WILLETS, of Brooklyn, followed in a very eloquent address, commending the Society for its good influence and perfect adaptation to meet the destitution of the land.

A large collection was taken up, and the meeting dismissed with the benediction.

The New Health Officer.

Dr. JOHN SWINBURNE, who on Saturday was nominated by the Governor, and unanimously confirmed by the Senate, as Health Officer of this port, is a resident of Albany. He is an accomplished physician, one of the ablest surgeons in the State, and, devoted to his profession, is among the foremost in developing its skill and extending its usefulness. Personally, no man possesses more popular qualities, and no man is more deservedly popular. It was Dr. SWINBURNE who, volunteering and leaving a lucrative practice, was sent by the Governor to the Peninsula, where his skill and fidelity were of greatest value. During the seven days' battles, refusing to leave the sick and wounded under his charge, he was taken prisoner, and it was due to his firm and manly appeals to the rebel authorities that much of misery and death were saved, and comforts secured to our suffering soldiers. He will bring to the position of Health Officer all the ability necessary to fill it, and the will to do so faithfully and valuably.

Dr. GUNN, who retires, has for four years sustained the reputation which preceded his appointment, and has been indefatigable in the discharge of his duties. The vigilance with which the sanitary regulations have been enforced is evidenced in the continued health of the City and its freedom from contagion. Much more of this depends upon the intelligent, conscientious discharge of duty by the Health Officer than the public are aware of. Eternal vigilance is not only the price of liberty, but on the part of the Health Officer, is the price of public health. Dr. GUNN retires with the acknowledgment that his duties have been thoroughly and valuably performed.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE HARLEM RAILROAD.—Coroner NAUMANN held an inquest yesterday at No. 1 East Forty-sixth-street, on the body of THOMAS BURNS, a laborer, who was run over in Fourth-avenue, near Forty-sixth-street, by a locomotive belonging to the Harlem Railroad Company. The wheels of the locomotive passed over his abdomen, cutting his body nearly in twain. Instant death was the result. Deceased was at work on the track at the time, and notwithstanding the signals of danger given by the engineer on the approaching train, it seems he failed to get off the track in time to save his life. The jury rendered a verdict of accidental death. BURNS was a single man, aged about forty-four years. He had been in the employ of the Harlem Railroad Company for six or seven years.

FLUSHING AND THE SANITARY FAIR.—The ladies of Flushing, hold their fair (auxiliary to the Metropolitan Fair,) on Tuesday, the 22d. We understand they have a handsome collection of articles to dispose of, contributed by the liberal citizens of Flushing and vicinity, as well as some elegant specimens of their own handywork, both ornamental and useful. The entire proceeds are to be handed over to the treasurer of the Metropolitan Fair, as the contribution of Flushing. Should any of our citizens feel disposed to attend, they can return to the City in the evening by the night train, which leaves Flushing at 11 o'clock P.M.

MURDER ON THE HIGH SEAS.

United States Supreme Court—March 19.

Before Judge Shipman and a Jury.

The United States vs. Henry C. Sorrenson, William Smith and Evan Edwards.—These three men were put on trial, charged with the murder of Charles Courletta, mate of the bark Lone Star, on board which they were seamen.

Mr. Phillips appeared as counsel for Sorrenson and Edwards, and Mr. Curtis for Smith.

The prosecution, after giving evidence to show that the vessel was an American vessel, called as a witness Henry Jermyn, who testified as follows:

I was second mate of the Lone Star; I joined her in Bombay; Capt. Dizer was her master; she left Bombay in March, 1863, and went to Rangoon, from which she sailed, bound to Falmouth in England, calling at St. Helena; she had eight men before the mast; Charles Courietta was the first mate; the three men accused were three of the crew; the others were named Michael Hurley, George Humphreys, Benjamin Hine, Stephen Davis and Robert Luther. On the 3d of September, 1863, the Lone Star was between the Cape of Good Hope and St. Helena, from 500 to 700 miles from Africa. I was relieved from my watch at about half-past one o'clock, by the chief mate, all hands being on deck; we shifted studding-sail booms and set the sails; the mate sent me below at a quarter to two, leaving the hands on deck pumping; I woke up about half-past two, hearing a noise on deck; I came on deck through the cabin door aft; the first man I met on deck was Hurley; he told me to run forward, that there was a row there; I ran forward along the poop, and jumped down on deck right at the break of the forecastle; I saw Edwards sitting on the flying jib and jib guys, his legs astride them both, with a line in his hands; I asked him what was the matter; he told me to heave away on the line; I asked him what was on it; he said a porpoise; I began hauling, but did not find the line give any; looking round, I missed the mate, and asked Edwards where he was; he told me he had fallen overboard, striking a porpoise; I sang out to the captain, "The mate is overboard;" I happened to turn round, and saw a colored boy (Tom) there, and I sent him for the captain; I took the line out of Edwards' hand and followed it with my hand to the chains, and there I found a harpoon on it, between the chains; it could not have been thrown there where it was fixed; it was betwixt the fore chains and the ship's side, on the starboard side; I sent one of the prisoners over the side to get the harpoon clear; it was a harpoon that the mate had made a few days before; I went aft and told the Captain of it; he was then on the poop; he called Edwards and Sorrensen aft; when I first went forward and saw Edwards, as I have described, there was some one else on the forecastle standing by the capstan, but I could not tell who it was; I saw Sorrensen first to know him when he came aft to the Captain; when the Captain called him and Edwards aft, he asked them where the mate was; Sorrensen said he had fallen overboard striking a porpoise; that he was standing on the martingale back ropes, and the line got foul of his heels and took him to the block on the flying jib guys, where he hung for about two seconds and then fell overboard; the Captain asked him why he did not sing out, and he said he was too frightened; The Captain then sent them forward, and that was all that occurred that night; the Captain went below and I stayed on deck; Hurley was at the wheel from two to four; he and Sorrensen and Edwards composed the mate's watch; Smith, Humphreys and Hine were in my watch; between six and seven o'clock that morning I sent Hine to put two battens on the foretopmast stays; I was aft by the mainmast; he came back to me and asked me if I would go on the forecastle with him, and I went; when I went he showed me some blood on the paint-work, on the deck and on the jib and flying jib guys; the paint-work I mean is the white paint on the inside of the ship's rail; he showed me also a belaying pin on the moulding outside the bows.

An iron belaying pin was produced and identified by the witness, who also pointed out the blood on it.

The belaying pin was on the opposite side from where Edwards was sitting; it was on the plank-shear; the usual place for it was on the starboard side in a rail; the ship had a fair wind at the time; it was a fine moonlight night; not a great deal of wind; I called the Captain forward to look at the pin and the blood; he came and looked at them and picked up the pin; I did not touch it; I was beside him when he picked it up; he brought the pin aft and told me to put Sorrensen and Edwards in irons, and I did so; while putting Edwards in irons, I found the back of his hand and a part of his arm with blood on it; it was caked here and there; after I got them in irons I took them aft; in the afternoon Edwards was let out and Smith was put in his place; the next morning Edwards was put in irons again; I put Hurley in irons the same morning; while I was putting Smith in irons he asked me why I was doing it; I told him I had nothing to do with it; he said he had done nothing.

This witness was then asked as to certain alleged admissions made by the defendants, but on his testimony about the circumstances under which they were given, the court ruled them out as improperly obtained.

The witness also testified that in catching porpoises they used to run a line through a block on the jib guys and fasten the line to it. The mate was very fond of catching porpoises, and had told Edwards to call him whenever he saw a porpoise.

He was cross-examined, but was not materially shaken. He testified that he had not seen any blood before where he saw this; did not recollect seeing any red paint on board, but there was cutch on board, which is a kind of pitch and will discolor water, a reddish brown; he should think the blood covered a space of about a foot square on the deck, and on the inside of the paint work there were three or four dozen spots.

On further direct examination he testified to examining some clothing on the day of the murder; took a sort of a shirt called a jumper off the starboard boat on deck, which he knew to be Sorrenson's; it had several spots of blood on it. Also, saw a pair of corduroy pantaloons which had blood on the leg; they were Smith's. The clothing was produced in Court and identified; the defence tried to show that the spots were cutch stains, but the witness persisted that it was blood, and was damp when he first saw it.

Michael Hurley, the man at the wheel, was called and said: I was at the wheel; Edwards came aft and called the mate, and told him there were porpoises under the bow; the mate went forward with Edwards; about a minute and a half after, as soon as he got forward, I heard him cry out, "Murder! Murder! Help! Help!" I stamped my foot on the deck and sung out to the Captain; he and the second mate and steward came on deck; they went forward; I could not see anything forward from where I was; the night before the affair I saw Sorrenson, Edwards and Smith standing on the break of the poop; I was going down the forecastle, and Sorrenson said, "I'll do for that mate, and Smith will lend me a hand." The witness also testified to a difficulty between Sorrenson and the mate, when Sorrenson was severely whipped by the mate and captain, and also to having seen the mate strike Edwards. He also said he had seen no vessels that night; that he saw the belaying pin that day, and there was blood on it, and blood also on the leg of the trowsers.

On cross-examination it appeared that this witness was also sent home in irons, and after the examination before the United States Commissioner, he was sent for by the District-Attorney, who asked him about the matter, but he was not told that if he would tell all he knew about it the prosecution as to him would be dropped.

Thomas Gill, the steward, testified: I was awakened by cries from the man at the wheel; I went at once on deck and asked what was the matter; Hurly replied: "Go forward and see; there is a row there with those chaps, I know." I went forward and saw Edwards on the starboard side, and Sorrensen on the port side looking over the side; Edwards was sitting over the bow with a line in his hand; I asked him what was the matter; he replied: "Haul on the line;" I hauled on the line for about five minutes, when I asked him what was on the line and he replied the mate was on the line; I said: "Why did you not say so before;" he made no answer; I then came from over the bow to the topgallant forecastle; I asked Sorrensen why he did not come to my assistance to haul the mate out of the water; he replied that he knew it was of no use; I took the line and came as far as the fore rigging with it, and on that end I saw a harpoon fast in the chains; the captain then was on the break of the poop, and wanted to know what was the matter; I said the mate is lost and there is no report about it; I then went aft to the cabin.

The witness also proved the facts about the blood on the belaying-pin and the deck and guys forward, and to the men's being put in irons; and said that the next day he had a conversation with Smith when he went to carry him bread and water; that he said to him that this was a painful case, and he did not think he (Smith) had anything to do with it, and asked him how it occurred; and Smith said Sorrenson struck the blows and the three of us threw him overboard; witness' reply was that Edwards had strongly denied it, and he said Edwards had as much to do with it as any of us.

The case was summed up for the prisoners by their respective counsel, and for the prosecution by the District-Attorney, and the case was submitted to the jury about five o'clock, under the following charge from Judge Shipman:

GENTLEMEN OF THE JURY: The prisoners at the bar stand charged with the murder of Charles Courletta on board of the bark Lone Star, on the high seas, on the third of September, 1863. The prisoners were seamen on the vessel, and the deceased was mate. The murder is alleged to have been committed on the morning of the 3d, between 2 and 3 o'clock, while the vessel was between the Cape of Good Hope and the Island of St. Helena, when about six days sail from the latter port. The bark is alleged to be an American vessel, which is a necessary fact to give this Court jurisdiction. On the evidence upon this point, I presume you will have no difficulty. I do not dwell upon it, therefore, but proceed to call your attention to the other parts of the case.

The case presents some peculiar features, and I presume the first inquiry which will naturally present itself to your minds, is, was a crime committed upon the deceased, which resulted in his death?

The Government claim to have proved beyond a reasonable doubt, that the deceased was killed on the forward part of the ship, and his body thrown overboard; or at least that he was assaulted and wounded, and then thrown into the sea where he drowned. The District-Attorney insists that the death of COURLETTA was clearly effected in one or the other of these ways.

The evidence in support of this great central fact of the prosecution you have heard and cannot fail to remember. The facts testified to by the second mate, [illegible], the wheelsman, Hurley, and the steward, Gill, it is contended, show that after the deceased came on deck and took charge of his watch, he was called forward by one of the prisoners, soon after which a cry of "Murder! murder! help! help!" was heard from the deceased, and that the wheelsman immediately gave the alarm, when the second mate and steward came on deck and ran forward, where they found the prisoner, Edwards, sitting astride the jib and flying jib-guys, with a line in his hand; that he was asked what was the matter, and he replied, "Haul on this line;" and when asked what was on that line, that he replied, "A porpoise;" that the line, on being taken from him and run by the hand to the fore-chains, was found fast to a harpoon, which was foul in the chains; that about this time it was discovered that the mate was missing, and that Edwards was asked where the mate was, when he replied that he had fallen overboard striking a porpoise. Gill also testifies that when he first asked Edwards what was on the line, the latter answered, "The mate."

At this point in the history of the affair, the Attorney calls your attention to what he claims a striking fact, and that is, that the mate was actually overboard, and the ship going at the rate of several miles an hour, yet no alarm or outcry was given whatever by Edwards, although it is claimed that he knew the fact. If you are satisfied that such was the fact, you will search the evidence for the reason of his silence. His alleged reply was, when asked why he did not give the alarm, that he was frightened. If the jury believe that he made this reply, they will consider whether it was the true reason or an improbable one, and whether the knowledge of such a disaster to the mate would not have evoked at once the involuntary cry of alarm and some effort to save the man overboard, unless there had been foul play. If he did know the mate was overboard and omitted to give the alarm, and has failed to give a satisfactory reason for such omission, the jury should weigh well the fact in connection with the evidence touching the alleged blood on the deck, on the belaying pin, on the guys, and the position where the pin was found, as well as any other parts of the evidence bearing on the point, and say whether or not they are satisfied, beyond a reasonable doubt, that violence was committed on the mate, which resulted in his death. If he was killed by blows on deck, or assaulted and thrown overboard, then of course a crime was committed.

The next inquiry which will naturally arise is, what the character of that crime was? Was it murder, or was it manslaughter? These are the only offences for the jury to consider, simply murder or manslaughter. There are separate degrees or grades of these offences under the statutes of the United States, and if the jury, therefore, find the defendants, or any one or more of them, guilty on this indictment, their verdict must be simply guilty, if for murder; but if for manslaughter, it should be guilty of manslaughter.

The prosecution claim to have proved that not only was a crime committed, but that crime was murder. The law declares that this offence is committed when a person of sound memory and discretion unlawfully kills any reasonable creature in being with malice aforethought, expressed or implied.

If the mate was killed, you see at once that the main point to determine whether it was murder or not is whether it was done with malice, and a good test here is whether it was done with premeditation, deliberately, and in pursuance of a design formed some time before the guilty act was done.

The Government rely on the fact of alleged ill-feeling of the prisoners, or some of them, on the alleged threat testified to by Hurly, which he says was made by Sorrenson, in the presence of Smith and Edwards, and Edwards' response, on the testimony of Hurly that Edwards came aft and called the deceased just before the latter was heard to cry out "Murder! murder! help! help!" and on the further alleged fact that no outcry or alarm was given after the mate was actually in the sea, and thus exposed to certain death.

It is for the jury to weigh this evidence considerately, and say whether or not they are satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the deceased was killed with malice aforethought. If he was, then it was murder.

If, however, you are not satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the deceased was killed with malice aforethought, but are satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that he was killed in a sudden quarrel after he went forward, then the crime is that of manslaughter.

The next inquiry will be, who committed the offence? Did these prisoners, or any one or more of them?

First in regard to Smith. He has been represented by separate counsel, who have insisted that whatever may be your verdict as to Sorrenson and Edwards, you should find Smith not guilty. The jury will remember the distinction which is made in the evidence between Smith and the other two prisoners, and if you are not satisfied that Smith participated in the offence, then you will find him not guilty, whatever may be your verdict in the case of the two others.

You will also notice if there are any material distinctions in the facts as they apply to Sorrenson and Edwards. There is no direct evidence beyond the admission of Smith that he helped to throw overboard the body, that he was present at the commission of the alleged crime. But two witnesses swear that Edwards soon after the cry of murder, was found on the forward part of the ship. Gill swears also that Sorrenson was on the opposite side of the ship forward, looking over the side of the ship. Thus these two prisoners are placed by this evidence in that part of the ship where their duty called them. They were in the mate's watch on deck—that is, they belonged there—and there is no reason suggested to show that they were not in point of fact there, and two witnesses swear they were there. Now if you are satisfied that a crime was committed; that the mate lost his life by violence, you will say whether or not Sorrenson and Edwards, or either of them participated in it, and if so did they commit the crime of murder, or did they only commit the crime of manslaughter? The Judge also charged the jury as to the presumption of innocence, the burden of proof, the necessity of the proof being consistent with guilt, and inconsistent with innocence, and upon points submitted by defendants' counsel on a request to charge.

The jury went out about 5 o'clock to consider their verdict. They returned at about 8 o'clock, and say that they find a verdict of guilty of manslaughter against Henry C. Sorrenson, and they find William Smith not guilty, and they find a verdict of manslaughter against Evan Edwards.

Obituary.

—Capt. Edward Gorman died in Brooklyn yesterday of consumption. The disease was induced by exposure in the field. On the organization of the One Hundred and Seventy-fifth Regiment, Col. Bryan, Capt. Gorman having raised a company, joined this command, which was attached to Gen Banks' Department. The regiment was engaged in several of the battles of the Southwest, and at the fearful assault on Port Hudson was conspicuous. Here, as elsewhere, Capt. Gorman distinguished himself; on all occasions he was cool, brave and equal to emergencies. His disease developing itself, he was compelled to resign his commission, to the regret of the regiment, with whom his manly, jovial and generous nature had made him a general favorite. He was well known in this City, and his death, at the early age of thirty-three, will be much deplored. The funeral takes place to-morrow at 2 o'clock P. M., from the residence of Mr. Everard, his brother-in-law, No. 88 Washington-street, Brooklyn. The officers and members of the One Hundred and Seventy-fifth regiment now in the City are invited to attend.

Funeral of a Soldier.—The remains of the late Sergt.-Maj. Ogden H. Wheeler, of the First Regiment Ohio Volunteers, were yesterday consigned to their last resting place in Greenwood Cemetery. The funeral ceremonies took place at Plymouth Church, and the pastor, Rev. H. W. Beecher, officiated on the occasion. The deceased was formerly attached to Plymouth Sunday-school, and subsequently became a member of the church. He emigrated to Ohio before the war broke out, and when hostilities commenced he enlisted, and participating in several battles, was promoted to the position of Sergeant-Major for bravery and good conduct. He passed through all the engagements in which he participated without injury, but at the storming of Missionary Ridge he was struck by a bullet and instantly killed. His remains were brought on here for interment. The children of the Sunday-school were present, ranged on both sides of the gallery. They sang "Shining Shore" and other songs suitable to the occasion. Mr. Beecher made a brief but very forcible address, in which he extolled the bravery of the deceased, and advised all young men of the Sunday-school, or of his congregation, who had any idea of joining the army, to do so, and not to forget that they were fighting for their country as well as for the freedom of the poor, the ignorant and the dark hued bondman. Many had gone to the war, and he had never yet had occasion to be ashamed of the boys of Plymouth Church. After the services the coffin, which was covered with the American flag, was placed in the hearse and conveyed to the cemetery, escorted by a detail of ten files of the Thirteenth Regiment, under command of Sergt.-Major Cornwell.

TESTIMONIAL FROM ONE OF THE MOST RESPECTABLE CITIZENS OF NEW-YORK.
DEAFNESS AND CATARRH CURED.

No. 420 Sixth-av., New-York, Dec. 2, 1863.

I was deaf for several years, and hearing of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I was induced to place myself under his care, and I am now happy to state that my hearing was entirely restored after a short treatment. I was also suffering from chronic catarrh, of which I was also cured by the skillful treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg. I do but justice to the Doctor in stating that in treating me he displayed that skill and knowledge which have already procured for him such a deserved reputation, and that the principles which direct his system of curing Deafness and Catarrh are such as to render success certain, in my opinion. Many months have passed since Dr. Von Eisenberg restored my hearing, and it continues as good as ever.

CATARRH CURED.
READ!

I have been suffering for a long time from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery, and very painful. My nostrils were constantly obstructed with a pouring fluid. That frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, often attended with a fullness of my throat, great soreness, and a continual dropping. Dr. Von Eisenberg has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I may, indeed, say that I feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg is as skillful as it is successful. It is in my opinion impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. Von Eisenberg's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured.

Harlem, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over twenty-five years, and Dr. Von Eisenberg operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

WILLIAM LIDDLE,

No. 134 Allen-st., New-York, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR.

New-York, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.
READ.

New-York, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

ANOTHER CERTIFICATE.
EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A RUNNING TUMOR
BY DR. SCHENCK'S MEDICINES.
THE HEALING POWERS OF
SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP
STRIKINGLY ILLUSTRATED.
THE CASE OF MRS. MARY BARTHOLOMEW,
NO. 83 WEST FORTY-FIFTH-STREET, NEW-YORK.

This is to certify that I have been laboring under a disease supposed to be liver-complaint for a great many years. There was a hard swelling in my side, which became quite large. The doctors called it a tumor. After some time it broke, and continued running for fourteen years, sometimes discharging a thin watery matter, and other times green bile. I had the best medical attendance in New-York, and my physicians all told me that the ulcerous hole in my side must not be healed or the discharges from it stopped, or I would soon die. My physicians gave me calomel or mercury, until my mouth became very sore, and several times I was salivated as badly as any one could be without dying under the process. No one could be tortured more than I was and live through it. Within the last year my strength began to fail more than ever; my blood seemed to stop flowing, my pulse at times ceasing to beat for fifteen or twenty seconds at a time. My skin and the whites of my eyes were as yellow as saffron. I knew not what to do, and my doctors acknowledged that they could do no more for me. I was unwilling to try what are called "Patent Medicines," for I thought that I had nearly all the best physicians in New-York to attend me, and if they could not help me, no one could. At this time, when I had began to despair, a friend of mine brought me a Sunday Mercury, in which I read the certificate of a wonderful cure of consumption, the patient having been confined to her bed, and apparently in the last stage of the disease, and yet was cured by Dr. Schenck. I would have considered this as trickery or deception, had it not been certified to by many respectable persons, with the indorsement of Rev. Dr. Dowling. This gave me encouragement, and I was impatient for a consultation with Dr. Schenck, having to wait for Tuesday, one of the days of his regular attendance to patients in this City. It was about the last of July, 1863, when I called on Dr. Schenck, at his rooms, No. 32 Bond-st. He said he understood my case, and gave me all three of his medicines—Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills—and within nine days there was a great change in my feelings. The hole in my side discharged more than ever; still I felt better, and began to entertain hopes of a cure. I could feel the Pulmonic Syrup operating through my blood. The Seaweed Tonic seemed to act on my stomach in an indescribable manner; but in a very short time it gave a ravenous appetite, but not until I had taken nearly a box of the Mandrake Pills. No one could believe that any human stomach could contain such an enormous quantity of corruption as I discharged. It seems that for nearly two weeks nothing but green bile and unhealthy matter passed my bowels. My complexion changed, my skin began to look clear, and, to my great astonishment, I found the tumors healing up. I did not know what to think of that, as the doctors told me that if the ulcers healed my death would be the immediate consequence. I longed for the next Tuesday, to see Dr. Schenck. He said that I was doing well, and that I would soon be as well as ever; and thanks to kind Providence, this promise has been fulfilled. This day I feel as well as ever I did in my life, although it is only three months since my case appeared to be desperate. All who knew me are astonished at the change.

The running ulcer of so many years' continuance is entirely healed, and I have no more of that dull, heavy, sleepy feeling which I used to experience almost without intermission. I rise in the morning without having a bad taste in my mouth or a furred tongue, and I always have an excellent appetite for my breakfast. I am satisfied that no one can speak too highly of Dr. Schenck's medicines and their extraordinary effects. For my part, language is inadequate to express my gratitude. I feel that Dr. Schenck's medicines, by the providence of God, have been the means of the restoration of my life, for which I shall ever be thankful.

Several of my friends, through my recommendation, have been using Dr. Schenck's medicines for consumption and other diseases of that kind. All of them have been greatly benefitted. I make this public statement in order that the thousands who suffer from diseases similar to mine may be induced to try Dr. Schenck's invaluable medicines. Do not think, as I did, that if your favorite doctor cannot help you no one can. I would advise every consumptive person to go and see Dr. Schenck, and follow his prescriptions. Take his advise, at least, if you do not take his medicines. It is encouraging to hear the people conversing in his rooms, and discribing the benefit they have received from his treatment. Their looks shows that they have no deception in them. They are all anxious for help, and are being helped. I wish all who are afflicted as I was to call and see me, for I feel that I can satisfy every one of them that this statement is not exaggerated. I relate all the particulars because I know that many are like what I was—skeptical. I have requested a number of my friends to append their names to my statement, in order that no person can entertain any reasonable doubts on the subject.

Mrs. MARY BARTHOLOMEW.

We, the undersigned, friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Bartholomew, who gives the above certificate, have known her for many years, and do certify that the statements made by her are entitled to full credence, and that the account is not at all exaggerated. Scarcely any person who knew her three months ago would recognize her now—such is the alteration in her appearance.

New-York Board of Fire Insurance Companies,
New-York, March 17, 1864.

AT A MEETING OF THE BOARD HELD this date, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Board, the principle of requiring fire insurance companies organized under the laws of any of the States of this Union, to make deposit of any portion of their funds in any other States for the benefit of their customers in those States, is fallacious and unsound, and tends to diminish the ability of the companies to meet promptly their liabilities, by tying up their assets in particular localities, instead of leaving them free to meet such liabilities, wherever incurred.

Resolved, That the security afforded by any insurance company is to be found in its capital and assets, and in its character for just and honorable dealing, and that when these fail, all deposits will be found far less available.

Resolved, That while we protest against the propriety of any such deposits, we hold it to be equally true that if the practice of demanding deposits shall be adopted to any extent, the people of this State, for their own security, ought to demand of the Legislature to require of the companies making deposits a deposit in this State that shall be ample to protect its citizens against all reasonable possibility of loss.

By order. W. F. UNDERHILL, Secretary.

A SINGLE BOX OF BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world beside. Fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty that will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this Spring season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heartburn, pain in the breast-bone, sudden faintness and costiveness.

See B. Brandreth is on the Government stamp.

☞ LET EVERY WOMAN READ THE FOLLOWING: ☜
HEALTH OF AMERICAN WOMEN.
Office of The Graefenberg Company, No. 139 William-st., (near Fulton,) New-York.

Under the above heading, Dr. J. F. Bridge (Secretary and Resident Physician of the Graefenberg Company) addressed a series of letters, some years ago, to the medical profession and to the public, which attracted great attention to the Graefenberg Company's Uterine Catholicon, (Marshall's.) The alarming extent, in every age and condition of woman's life, of the complaints, commonly known as "female weakness," together with the constitutional symptoms, such as nervousness, deranged digestion, headache, &c., and the fact that there was no remedy for them until the discovery of this Catholicon, induced extensive trial of the remedy.

Fortunately for suffering woman, the expectations induced by scientific analysis were more than fulfilled upon trial. Ninety-five out of every hundred cases have been entirely cured, and the few cases where great age or absoute physical injury to vital organs have prevented a complete cure, the symptoms have been much relieved.

CERTIFICATES.

I have practiced medicine in this village some ten years. During the entire time I have observed the action of the Graefenberg Company's Uterine Catholicon (Marshall's,) in cases of Female Weakness. I take great pleasure in stating that I have known many complete cures effected by taking two or three bottles, and have never known an instance where it did not give complete satisfaction.

S. RAMSEY, M. D.
Reedsburgh, Wis., Dec. 23, 1863.

My daughter, aged 17, had been ailing about three years, and had become so debilitated that she could hardly go across the house. She is now well, and it is the Graefenberg Uterine Catholicon that has done it. I can recommend it as the best medicine in the world for what it is recommended.

LEWIS RUSSEL.
Berlin Falls, N. H., July 15, 1863.

☞ From the age of 15 years upward the Catholicon will be found certain to relieve the common troubles of all women. It is confidently offered as the only certain remedy known.

☞ The above Catholicon was first offered to the world by the Graefenberg Company, and called "Marshall's," in connection with the name of Dr. Theo. Pomeroy, of Utica, (now deceased,) as its original discoverer. The proprietors of the Graefenberg Company have from him and his estate the sole right to issue it.

☞ Beware of articles with a similar or spurious name. Any Catholicon without the seal of the Graefenberg Company, and the signature of JOSHUA F. BRIDGE, M.D., is unreliable. ☜

CHICAGO AND GREAT EASTERN RAILWAY COMPANY,
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
FOR $2,000,000.

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS OPENED WITH Messrs. SCHUCHARDT & GEBHARD, Bankers, No. 21 Nassau-st., New-York.

The Chicago and Great Eastern Railway Company now offer for sale one million one hundred thousand dollars of their first mortgage bonds, in sums of one thousand dollars each, maturing in thirty years, bearing interest at the rate of Seven per cent. per annum, payable in the City of New-York, on the first days of April and October, in each year.

These bonds are secured by a first and only Mortgage on the property, income and franchises of the Railway Company, executed to Frederick Schuchardt and Henry Morgan, of the City of New-York, Trustees.

The remaining nine hundred thousand dollars of the Bonds are set apart and remain in the hands of the said Trustees, for the purpose of being exchanged for the indebtedness of the Chicago and Cincinnati Railroad Company, running from La Crosse to Logansport; this effected, the $2,000,000 will form a First and only Mortgage on a line of road 110 miles in length, extending from Chicago to Logansport, where it connects with the Cincinnati and Chicago Air-line Railroad, forming the shortest line by 40 miles, between Chicago and Cincinnati, and by 36 miles the shortest line between Louisville and Chicago.

It will also open, in connection with roads now in operation, entirely new and very direct lines from Chicago to New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and all Eastern cities. The distance between Chicago and New-York by this route being shorter than by either of the existing lines via Dunkirk or Buffalo.

The road is now under contract, and the most strenuous efforts are being made to have it open for traffic during the Summer of 1864.

The interest on the Bonds maturing during the progress of the work has been provided for, and will remain on deposit with the Bankers of the Company, Messrs SCHUCHARDT & GEBHARD, No. 21 Nassau-st., to whom the Company refer for further particulars, and where subscription books for this loan have been opened.

THE GOLD PEN—THE BEST OF ALL PENS,
MORTON'S GOLD PENS,
THE BEST PENS IN THE WORLD.

On receipt of any of the following sums in Cash, the subscriber will send by return mail, or otherwise, as directed, a Gold Pen or Pens—selecting the same according to description, viz.:

GOLD PENS WITHOUT CASES.

For 25 cents, the Magic Pen; for 38 cents, the Lucky Pen; for 50 cents, the Always-Ready Pen; for 75 cents, the Elegant Pen; and for $1, the Excelsior Pen. These Pens are not numbered, but correspond in sizes to Numbers 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 respectively.

THE SAME PENS IN SILVER-PLATED EXTENSION CASES, WITH PENCILS.

For 50 cents, the Magic Pen; for 75 cents, the Lucky Pen; for $1, the Always-Ready Pen; for $1 25, the Elegant Pen, and for $1 50, the Excelsior Pen.

These are Well-Finished, Good-Writing Gold Pens, with Iridosmin Points, the average wear of every one of which will far outlast a gross of the best Steel Pens, although they are unwarranted, and, therefore, not exchangeable.

MORTON'S WARRANTED PENS.

The name "A. Morton," "Number" and "Quality," are stamped on the following Pens, and the points are warranted for six months, except against accident.

The numbers indicate size only; No. 1 being the smallest, No. 6 the largest, adapted for the pocket; No. 4 the smallest, and No. 10 the largest Mammoth Gold Pen, for the desk.

Long and medium Nibs of all sizes and qualities. Short Nibs of Numbers 4, 5, 6 and 7, and made only of first quality.

The Long and Short Nibs are fine pointed; the Medium Nibs are broad, course business points. The engravings are fac-similes of the sizes and styles.

GOLD PENS WITHOUT CASES.

For $1 a No. 2 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 3 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 4 Pen, 3d quality.
For $1 25 a No. 3 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 4 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 5 Pen, 3d quality.
For $1 50 a No. 4 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 5 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 6 Pen, 3d quality.
For $1 75 a No. 5 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 6 Pen, 2d quality.
For $2 25 a No. 6 Pen; $2 75 a No. 7 Pen; $3 25 a No. 8 Pen; $4 a No. 9 Pen; $5 a No. 10 Pen; all 1st quality.

THE SAME GOLD PENS, IN SILVER EXTENSION CASES, WITH PENCILS.

For $1 50 a No. 1 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 3 Pen, 2d quality.

For $2 a No. 3 Pen 1st quality; or a No. 4 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 5 Pen, 3d quality.
For $2 50 a No. 4 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 5 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 6 Pen, 3d quality.
For $3 a No. 5 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 6 Pen, 2d quality.
For $3 50 a No. 6 Pen, 1st quality.

GOLD PENS, ALL FIRST QUALITY, IN SILVER-MOUNTED DESK-HOLDERS.

For $2 00 a No. 4 Pen; for $2 25 a No. 5 Pen; for $2 75 a No. 6 Pen; for $3 50 a No. 7 Pen.
For $4 a No. 8 Pen; for $5 a No. 9 Pen; and for $6 a No. 10 Pen.

The "1st Quality" are pointed with the very best Iridosmin Points, carefully selected, and none of this quality are sold with the slightest imperfection which skill and the closest scrutiny can detect.

The "2d Quality" are superior to any Pens made by him previous to the year 1860.

The "3d Quality" he intends shall equal in respect to Durability, Elasticity and Good Writing Qualities (the only true considerations) any Gold Pens made elsewhere.

In regard to the Cheap Gold Pens, he begs leave to say that, previous to operating his New and Patented Machines, he could not have made as Good Writing and Durable Pens for the price, had the Gold been furnished gratuitously.

Parties ordering must in all instances specify the "Name" or the "Number" and "Quality" of the Pens wanted, and be particular to describe the kind they prefer—whether stiff or limber, coarse or fine.

All remittances sent by mail in registered letters are at my risk; and to all who send twenty cents (charge of registering,) in addition to the price of goods ordered, will guarantee their safe delivery.

Parties sending Gold or Silver will be allowed the full premium on the day received.

TO CLUBS—A discount of 10 per cent. will be allowed on sums of $12, of 15 per cent. on $24, and of 20 per cent. on $40, if sent to one address at one time.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. DR. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris, and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health call: it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhoea or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Call, send, or write.

SPEEDY RELIEF AND SURE CURE GUARANTEED.—Therefore, let no false delicacy prevent your immediate application to Dr. POWERS. Dr. POWERS successfully consulted with Dr. WARD No. 50 Lispenard-st. Conducted on the plan of the Hospital des Veneriens, Paris, where those afflicted with any form of private disease can receive prompt treatment, without risk or exposure. viz.: Syphilis, gonorrhoea, gleet, strictures, ulcers, tumors, cancers, secondary and constitutional syphilis, diseases of the kidneys, &c., &c. Thirty years of extensive practice, exclusively devoted to the treatment of these complaints, enable us to effect cures in cases where others of less experience have failed. Dr. Powers' Essence of Life restores the vigor of youth in four weeks. This marvelous agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution—physical disqualifications, impediments to marriage, speedily cured. The men to consult, Drs. Ward and Powers, the champions and kings of venereal diseases, possessing the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedies in the world. Those who have used their preventives are never without. Send or a circular. To Ladies.—Dr. Powers' Periodical Drops are a safe and certain remedy for monthly irregularities. The above remedies sent by mail. The afflicted should read their circular. Postage free, on receipt of a stamp. Cures warranted.

AFFLICTED RESTORED! IGNORANCE EXPOSED! FALLACIES UNMASKED!—Highly important to both sexes, married or single, in health or disease. Dr. LARMONT'S Paris, London and New-York Medical Adviser and Marriage Guide, 80th edition, over 400 pages, nearly 100 figure illustrations upon mental and nervous debility, urinary deposits, involuntary loss of semen, impotency, affections of the bladder and kidneys, genito-urinary diseases and their consequences, the anatomy of the sexual organs of the male and female, latest researches in physiology; European hospital practice; quacks, recipes and specifics; the author's unequaled Paris and London treatment, &c. Mailed for $1, closely sealed, by the publisher, E. WARNER, No. 1 Vesey-st., Astor House.

All who would avoid unsuccessful and barbarous treatment with mercury, copaiba, injections, cauterizations, quack specifics, antidotes, instruments, &c., should read this original book, or consult the Doctor, No. 173 Broadway, (up stairs,) N. Y., from 10 to 5.

"We concur with other papers in recommending Dr. Larmont and his work."—Courrier des Etats Unis, Dispatch, Staats Zeitung, Atlas, Medical Review, &c.

$1,000 FORFEITED AND NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—Dr. Hunter's Red Drop cures venereal diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury; but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless this remedy is used. This is what he claims for it; and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known that scientific men, in every department of medical knowledge, begin to appreciate it; for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, since 1834. Eight separate rooms and a private entrance. A ten cent bill will secure the Monitor of Health by return mail.

AMUSEMENTS.

NIBLO'S SALOON.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, and SATURDAY EVENINGS, March 24, 25, and 26, Matinée on SATURDAY at 2 P. M., a novel, humorous, and elegant entertainment, entitled PHOTOGRAPHIANA, combining a series of eccentric sketches of character! Hits at society! Dashes at the Dilettanti! Flings at the Shoddyites! Rubs on the Romantic! Smiles at the Sentimental, &c., from the pen of the popular American Dramatist, Charles Gayler, and illustrated by the Charming Vocalist and Commedienne, Mrs. H. Watkins, the accomplished young Pianiste, Miss Carlotta Shaw, and the distinguished American Comedian, Mr. Harry Watkins.

ARGUMENT OF PHOTOGRAPHIANA.

A young gentleman, twenty-five years of age, with large expectations, excellent education, a cheerful disposition, liberal, agreeable manners, and not altogether without pretentions to good looks, but whose circle of female friends is somewhat limited, desires the acquaintance of a respectable lady with a view to matrimony. She must be young and good tempered—money no object. Apply in person between the hours of 10 A. M. and 6 P. M., to C. W., No. 10 Cosey-place. Vide Morning papers, Matrimonial head.

People who answer Matrimonial advertisements; as represented by Mrs. H. Watkins: Caroline Delancey, a young lady with no nonsense about her, and song, "Poor Though My Cot May Be." Miss Rhoda Bickers, a strong-minded female, with song, "Let us all Speak our Minds if we Die for it." Miss Angelica Sighaway, with song, "Courting's Very Charming," and a new version of Hiawatha. Betsy Pringle, a romantic maid of all work (?) with an entirely new song, "The Captain Without His Whiskers." Adolphus Gillflower, Esq., with song, "Do You Really Think I Did?" Miss Blanche Mowbray, a Boarding School Miss, with song, "I am so Very Shy." Lirdy Maloy, with song, "No Irish Need Apply." Henry Jasper, a Union Drummer Boy, with H. Watkins' new National Hymn, "Great Spirit, Hear My Prayer," and Gayler's Grand National Song, "Shout for our Glorious Banner."

People who advertise; represented by Mr. H. Watkins: Charles Winthrop, a young gentleman in want of a wife, but too bashful to ask for such a thing. Jeremiah Jowler, with the pathetic Ballad of "The Mountain Lamb." Peleg Huckleberry, with a new song, "A Great Sensation," and Solo on a Shepherd's Pipe. Josiah Johnson, an irrepressible Contraband of the Corps d'Afrique, with a "Musket Drill," A "Jump Up," and song "Wool or Cotton."

NOTE.—An entertainment of a similar nature to the above has been given by these distinguished Artistes, during the past four years, throughout England, Ireland and Scotland, where their wonderful impersonations elicited the highest encomiums from the first critics of the day, and were patronized by the most elegant and fashionable audiences of Great Britain. Believing that this truly charming and delightful style of amusement has but to be known to become highly popular with our people, Photographiana has been arranged with a view of meeting the requirements and refined taste of the American public.

Admission 50 cents; Reserved seats 75 cents.

CHICKERING & SONS

MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, No. 652 BROADWAY.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.

Mr. GOTTSCHALK'S constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO-FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

STEINWAY & SONS'

GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. MASON & HAMLIN'S CABINET ORGANS, FOR FAMILIES, CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS—Recognized by the musical profession as greatly superior to Harmoniums, Melodeons and all other small organs. [See our illustrated catalogue for explicit testimony to their superiority from a majority of the most eminent organists in America.] Prices, $85 to $500 each.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—The great reputation which our Cabinet Organs have obtained, and the extensive demand for them, have induced dealers to advertise, in some cases, quite different instruments as Cabinet Organs, and in others to represent to purchasers that Harmoniums and other reed organs are the same thing. This is not true. The excellences of our Cabinet Organs, which have given them their high reputation, are the result not merely of the superiority of their workmanship, but also in large measure, of essential differences in construction, which, being patented, cannot be imitated by other makers. From these arise their better quality and volume of tone and unrivaled capacity for expression. Warerooms in New-York, No. 7 Mercer-st.

Death of a Distinguished Citizen.

Mr. EBEN MERIAM, well known as a statistician and meteorologist, died at his residence, No. 47 Orange-street, (Brooklyn Heights,) on Saturday afternoon, of dropsy of the liver. Thus has passed away one who devoted a lifetime to the scientific and pecuniary benefit of his fellow-men. Mr. MERIAM was born in Concord, Massachusetts, June 17, 1794, and consequently was in the 70th year of his age. Shortly after arriving at his majority he proceeded to Kentucky, where he was engaged for a number of years in the manufacture and purification of saltpetre, as well as other mineral products of the Mammoth Cave, in that State. He subsequently engaged extensively in the dry goods business in Zanesville, Ohio. Upon his removal to New-York about 26 years ago, he was a manufacturer of soap and candles, and entered quite largely into that branch of business, accumulating the foundation for a handsome competence. From his earliest childhood, it may be said Mr. MERIAM exhibited a taste for scientific pursuits, and devoted his attention more particularly to meteorological researches. His records of the latter branch of his studies are intact, and extend even to the day of his death. He originated the idea, founded upon his own private observations, of cycles of atmospherical phenomena, which he advanced in public prints with considerable enthusiasm. He attained extended notoriety in this respect, not only in this country but in Europe, and received many evidences of the correctness of his theory from scientific men abroad. He attained considerable notoriety as a careful compiler of meteorological facts, and was frequently cited before the courts to decide disputed points.

In 1841 Mr. MERIAM commenced the publication of the Municipal Gazetteer, a work embracing every particular of his extended researches, and devoted to history and the interests of science. It was published at his own individual expense, and is now almost complete up to the period of his death. The deceased was a contributor to nearly all the journals in New-York City upon scientific and eleemosynary subjects, he selecting the Journal of Commerce as his especial organ. The record of his public career may be briefly stated: He devoted the results of his scientific researches, as well as conducted them freely, for the benefit of society. Whatever private fortune he may have possessed at any time was somewhat lavishly expended, with the object of assisting those in distress. He never received, nor would he take, adequate pecuniary compensation for his mental labors, but always considered that his discoveries were for the public benefit. His influence was always extended in favor of the oppressed and suffering, and he has frequently successfully combatted injustice in municipal and legislative enactments, absolutely refusing therefor any pecuniary reward.

Mr. MERIAM had many eccentricities of habit, but all developed a humane and kindly nature. He would not witness or permit the suffering of any dumb creature without an effort to relieve its misery. All cases of pecuniary distress that came to his knowledge—and they were not a few—were assisted to the extent of his ability, regardless of consequences to himself or family. Mr. MERIAM's circle of acquaintance was extensive, embracing almost all business and scientific men of the commercial metropolis and other cities, who will sincerely mourn his loss.

MONDAY, March 21—A. M.

Trade through the past week was quite active in the way of Import entries, but moderate in Exports, both ordinary Domestic Produce and Gold. The chief demand for the latter is to pay Customs, the receipts from which continue on a large scale. The Gold and Silver balances now held in the Treasury Office here amount to $25,118,578, a gain of nearly a million and a half over the previous week. The Specie now held in all the depositories of the Treasury Department is not far from thirty-three millions. The New-York balances will probably see their highest point for the present in the course of this week, or as soon as arrangements can be effected for anticipating the April and May interest on the Public Debt. Whatever other steps may be in contemplation by the Secretary of the Treasury on this subject, they will probably be kept confidential, as they certainly ought to be, if he would not have private speculation forestall his movements, and thus defeat the public good contemplated by the recent joint resolution of Congress. As the market price of Gold was advanced by speculation in the course of February and March from 150@152 ₩ cent. to 160@162 ₩ cent., mainly through the help of the Customs demand, which was unexpectedly heavy and greatly in advance of the interest payments on the Public Debt, the authority now rests with the Secretary to gradually correct this mischief. We believe the public may rest assured that he will not fail to exercise his control discreetly, and, in good season, effectively.

The market for money now favors the 5 per cent. Gold-bearing Loan, 10-40 years, which the Secretary of the Treasury will soon open to popular subscriptions, and the opportunity will unquestionably be availed of by hundreds of people who have the money at command, and who distrust the stability of the recent great rise in railway property, and desire to keep clear of the wild speculative excitement now going on in this and other (and even less reliable) departments of the Stock Exchange.

There was no marked excitement or change in the price of Gold on Saturday. The market closed a fraction lower than on Friday. The Customs demand for the day was $322,000, making for the week $1,522,000. There was no Export demand for Gold Coin. The steamer carried out $187,052 in Gold Bars, English Sovereigns, &c. The whole export of the week of all sorts of Gold and Silver is $462,676.

The supply of Money to the Stock Exchange Brokers continued free to the close of the day, and the rate generally 6 ₩ cent. ₩ annum.

Government Stocks are firm, but not especially active since the sailing of the steamer this morning. The sales of the 5-20s in the afternoon were at 110@109⅞ ₩ cent.

The excitement was less violent on the Stock Exchange than on Friday and Friday night. A break-down of 5@6 ₩ cent. in the Harlem speculation, and a disposition in some quarters to sell Erie at the previous advance, affected the market through the early Board, and a dull feeling appeared also to pervade the dealings in the afternoon. At the same time there was not much yielding in prices on the leading Railways, while the Miscellaneous Shares were about the same as on Friday afternoon.

At 4 o'clock the dullness in the market continued, and the following prices were made as compared with the same hour on Friday: The subsequent Evening Exchange sales were ½ ₩ cent. lower on Erie, and 1 ₩ cent. higher on Michigan Southern.

The New-York Exchange Bank (A. VAN DUSER, President,) has resolved to take a National organization, under the style of The New-York National Exchange Bank. This name has been permitted by the Comptroller of the Currency, at Washington, and the stockholders have resolved to surrender their New-York State organization altogether. The transition will occasion no interruption to the business of the Bank, and no change of officers or shareholders. Other local Banks will probably soon follow this example, under the National Currency Act as it now stands.

The subscription-books of the Somerset Iron and Coal Company, of Pennsylvania, will be opened to-day, in the office of JAMES WADSWORTH & Co., No. 61 Cedar-street.

The following is communicated by the parties interested.

The Tenth National Bank, D. L. Ross, President, will open books to-day for subscription of an additional $500,000, making their capital one million, on Tuesday, at Messrs. LIVERMORE, CLEWS & Co.'s, Wall-st. A large part of the amount desired has been already subscribed. This bank will open for business on or before the 1st April at No. 240 Broadway, as soon as the offices can be completed, the requisite certificate having been already received from the Comptroller.

The Cincinnati Commercial has the following report of the affairs of the Wilmington and Zanesville Railroad of Ohio:

"A meeting of the parties for whose account the above road was purchased at the foreclosure sale in August last, was held yesterday, 11th inst., at the office of the company in this city, pursuant to notice.

The meeting was largely attended, and was organized by the appointment of Mr. HENRY AMY, of New-York, as Chairman, and Messrs JOEL KODEBAUGH, of this city, and CHAS. C. GODDARD, of Zanesville, as Secretaries.

Mr. LANE, of New-York, alluded with much feeling to the demise of Gen. GODDARD, of Zanesville, one of the counsel for the bondholders, and of Col. WM. KEY BOND of this city, late receiver of the road, and presented resolutions commendatory of the many virtues and noble qualities of those gentlemen, which resolutions were unanimously adopted by the meeting.

Mr. CHARLES MORAN, of New-York, who purchased the road for the benefit of the parties to the reorganization, presented a report stating the time and condition of the purchase of the road, equipment and franchise of the company, and the names of the several parties to the reorganization with the amount and nature of the respective interest held by each.

The new Company was then organized under the name of the Cincinnati and Zanesville Railroad Company.

The cost of the road and equipment will be represented in the new organization by $1,300,000 first mortgage and seven per cent. bonds, and about $2,000,000 of stock in shares of $50 each. No other mortgage is to be executed on the property of the Company, except for the purpose of extending the road to Cincinnati, for which purpose the Directors were further authorized to create a new stock to any amount not exceeding the corporate limits of the charter.

The meeting adjourned to 2½ P. M., when the election for Directors took place, forty-three thousand three hundred and seventy votes (equivalent to $2,168,500) having been cast for the following gentlemen:

ERASMUS GEST, CHARLES REEMELIN, ROBERT BROWN and S. N. PIKE, of Cincinnati.

RICHARD VON HOFFMANN, HENRY AMY and CHARLES MORAN, of New-York.

The election of these gentlemen was made unanimous viva voce.

The greatest unanimity prevailed, and a strong feeling was apparent of a determination to extend the road into this city.

At a meeting of the Directors held this day, Mr. ERASMUS GEST was elected President, and Mr. DAVID HULL Secretary and Treasurer.

UNIVERSAL
CLOTHES WRINGER

WITH

COG WHEELS

LETTER FROM MRS. HENRY WARD BEECHER, IN 1861.

I am most happy to speak in the very highest terms of the UNIVERSAL CLOTHES-WRINGER. The hardest part of "washing-day" work is, in my opinion, the wringing; and the inventor of this machine may have the satisfaction of feeling that he has changed one of the most toilsome parts of woman's work into a very attractive amusement. The laundress looks upon it as a great blessing. I could hardly express my approbation of them more highly than I have by ordering one, in these hard times, for my daughter. I look upon it as among the most useful articles in her house.

Mrs. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

BROOKLYN, October, 1861.

HENRY WARD BEECHER IN 1864.

After a constant use of the UNIVERSAL CLOTHES-WRINGER for more than four years, in my family, I am authorized by the "powers that be" to give it the most unqualified praise, and to pronounce it an indispensable part of the machinery of housekeeping. Our servants have always been willing to use it, and always have liked it.

It has been from time immemorial the object of philanthropists to find some remedy for the ills of life, and scientific skill has for ages explored every avenue in order to discover the hidden secret. It has been, however, reserved for modern science to bring before the world the great destroyer of disease, and in HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS are concentrated all those virtues which tend to promote healthy and vigorous life. Unlike the generality of bitters, they are not an alcoholic mixture, but a pure tonic, composed entirely of vegetable substances. They are a positive cure for

It is, on the contrary, world wide, and the triumphs of this article have blessed alike the rich and the poor, while like the snow that falls gently on the earth, so this friend of mankind causes its blessing to descend upon the suffering and afflicted. Its virtues are known in every quarter of the inhabitable globe, and the wonderful cures which it is daily performing have won for it the highest post in the temple of science. With such recommendations, backed by incontestible and undoubted testimonials from those who have experienced its curative properties, giving to the public no assertion but what has passed through the crucible of truth, and supported by an array of splendid and hitherto unknown triumphs, what wonder is it that thousands rush to it for relief in the hour of danger.

* * * * *

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz: That of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhœa.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, whenever I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly, yours, JOHN B. WICKERSHAM.

NEW-YORK, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chesnut-st., Philadelphia:

FEBRUARY 8, 1864.

MESSRS. JONES & EVANS—GENTLEMEN: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefited by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else has failed. Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From that well known citizen, the PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7, 1863.

GENTLEMEN: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of "Hoofland's German Bitters" in my family, I have no hesitation whatever in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia, of about thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequaled tonic, and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, No. 1,707 Spruce-st.

The following well-known reverend gentlemen have acknowledged in writing the great benefits they have received from the use of these Bitters. Such testimony must certainly convince the most sceptical:
